SOUTHERN WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

Southern Wesleyan University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award associate's, bachelor's, and master's degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Southern Wesleyan University.

Its teacher education programs are approved by the South Carolina State Board of Education using the Standards of the National Association of State Directors of Teacher Education and Certification (NASDTEC). (Documents describing accreditation are on file in the Office of the President and may be reviewed upon request.)

Degree program(s) of study offered at Southern Wesleyan University have been found exempt from the requirement of licensure by the University of North Carolina under provisions of North Carolina General Statutes Section (G.S.) 116-15(d) for exemption from licensure with respect to religious education. Exemption from licensure is not based upon any assessment of program quality under established licensing standards.

The university is a member of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities and of the South Carolina Foundation of Independent Colleges. Its students who are residents of South Carolina are eligible to apply for South Carolina Tuition Grants.

The school is recognized and listed by the U.S. Office of Education and by the Veterans Administration. It is authorized by Federal law to enroll nonimmigrant alien students.

Southern Wesleyan University has an established policy concerning the availability of student records. This policy complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. The act, with which the university intends to comply fully, was designed to protect the privacy of educational records and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data. The university policy on the availability of students' educational records is on file in the Office of Academic Records and may be obtained upon request.

In compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendment of 1972 and with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Southern Wesleyan University does not discriminate on the basis of race, national origin, sex, or physical handicap in any of its policies, practices, or procedures. The university reserves its right to operate as a church-related institution and to develop policies consistent with the religious tenets of its sponsoring denomination, The Wesleyan Church.

Federal legislation, Title II, Section 207, of the Higher Education Act, requires states and institutions having teacher preparation programs to submit annual reports on teacher preparation and licensing. The institutional reports include the pass rates of students on tests required for state certification, the number of students in the program, and the institution's accreditation status, among other information. The state report summarizes the institutional reports and state requirements and provides a rank ordering of the institutions based on the pass rates reported. Southern Wesleyan University provides an abbreviated report in this catalog and a full report at the following website:

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The mission of Southern Wesleyan University is . . .

To help men and women become all God intends them to be through an excellent learning experience that promotes intellectual inquiry, fosters spiritual maturity, equips for service, and mobilizes leaders whose lives transform their world through faith, knowledge, love and hope as they serve Jesus Christ and others.

Since its founding by The Wesleyan Church in 1906, Southern Wesleyan University has been a Christian community of learners that recognizes God as the source of all truth and wisdom. The university seeks to create an atmosphere in which members of the community work together toward wholeness by seeking to integrate faith, learning, and daily life.

Located in Central, South Carolina, the university is a half-way point between Charlotte, North Carolina, and Atlanta, Georgia. It is thirty minutes from the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains and ten minutes from Clemson University, with whom it shares some cooperative programs. Southern Wesleyan welcomes persons with a wide variety of backgrounds and abilities. Younger and older, undergraduate and graduate, residential and commuting, and traditional and non-traditional students work and interact with a faculty guided by a Christian understanding of the liberal arts.

The university evolved from a small Bible institute and its first charter as Wesleyan Methodist College in 1909 into a four-year, private, liberal arts college, regionally accredited in 1973. Historically, the founders of the college understood linguistic, quantitative, and analytical skills to be the foundation of a liberal arts education. Further, they believed that the cultivation of this curriculum within the context of faith, worship, studies in religion, and service to others created a fertile soil for intellectual and spiritual growth. Thus, the college ensured that every student would be well grounded in these areas by developing a general education curriculum of liberal arts studies. That tradition is alive today. All undergraduate programs—traditional and non-traditional—contain a core curriculum in the liberal arts.

As a ministry of The Wesleyan Church and in service to the global Church, Southern Wesleyan prepares students for graduate study and leadership in such fields as religion, education, music, business, medicine, law, and a variety of civic and social service professions. Graduate programs are offered in fields in which the university has demonstrated particular strengths—religion, education and business. Although the university serves the Southeast, the student population is a wholesome blending of cultural, ethnic and regional diversity drawn from the entire United States and the international community encouraging broader understanding and development of Christian values.

Ideal graduates of Southern Wesleyan have a healthy respect for themselves and others as bearers of God's image. Their respect encourages care for personal and social health—mentally, physically, and spiritually. They seek a biblical social awareness that cares for people and their environment. Through the completion of courses in world history, culture, and the arts (in traditional and non-traditional classes and in international settings), they are prepared to serve society with respect for the past and a vision for the future. Southern Wesleyan graduates are prepared to confront a rapidly changing world with skills in communication, information processing, analysis, synthesis, and problem-solving.

DOCTRINAL STATEMENT

We Believe:

The Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary to salvation; so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of faith, or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation. We do understand the books of the Old and New Testaments to constitute the Holy Scriptures. These Scriptures we hold to be the inspired and infallibly written Word of God, fully inerrant in their original manuscripts and superior to all human authority.

That there is one God, eternally self-existent, and in the Unity of this Godhead there are three Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

That Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God, conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, very God and very man; and the only and sufficient mediator between God and man, who by the sacrifice of Himself provides atonement for the whole human race, and that whosoever believeth in Him shall be saved.

That man was created in the image of God, but through transgression fell from that holy state, incurred spiritual death, became depraved, and is inclined to do evil and that continually. But by the grace of God working in man and with man, he may by faith in the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ be justified and regenerated in nature, so that he is delivered from the power of sin and thus through the grace of God enabled to love and serve Him with the will and affections of the heart. All who reject the grace of God are lost.

That the Holy Spirit is a Divine Person, the Executive of the Godhead, whose mission is to reveal Christ to man and to administer the Estate of Grace to all who truly believe; and that His special mission to the believer is to cleanse the heart from all sin, whether inherited or acquired, thus enabling him to love God with all his heart and his neighbor as himself.

That Jesus Christ rose from the dead, appeared on earth in a glorified bodily form; that He ascended to the right hand of God to occupy the Mediatorial Throne; that He will return to earth at God's appointed time; and that the blessed hope of His return is a powerful incentive to holy living and to world evangelism.

That there is a conscious existence after death, everlasting happiness for the saved, and everlasting woe for the lost.

Southern Wesleyan University Learning Outcomes

The learning community at Southern Wesleyan University fosters in participants

- biblically informed personal wholeness reflected in healthy, growth-enhancing relationships with God, themselves, and others;
- the ability to participate articulately in the significant conversations of the human race from a well-informed, reasonable, and distinctively Christian perspective; and
- the ability to effect positive change through skillful, values-driven engagement with their world.

Such that graduates . . .

- I. Bear witness to a deepening relationship with God through Christ reflected in integrity of thought, affection, and action.

2. Have established lifestyle habits that facilitate ongoing growth intellectually, spiritually, physically, socially and emotionally.
3. Approach issues of both a theoretical and practical nature from a consistently biblical perspective, tempered by awareness of personal biases and divergent views.
4. Lead positive change by seeking justice for, reconciliation with, and service to others in a manner that reflects understanding of social dynamics.
5. Recognize and value truth and beauty in themselves and their surroundings as reflections of the Creator.
6. Critically and creatively construct their own well-reasoned perspectives in discussing current trends, ideas and events, drawing on understanding of the breadth of human knowledge.
7. Demonstrate skill in listening, reading, scholarship, writing, public speaking and the use of technology.
8. Solve problems effectively using scientific research, critical thinking, and creativity.
9. Work collaboratively in diverse cultural groups to achieve positive results.
10. Master professional or discipline-specific knowledge and skills sufficient to be productive in the field to which they are called.

PROGRAMS AND FORMATS

Southern Wesleyan University seeks to meet the educational needs of diverse student populations through both traditional and innovative approaches. For those students who seek an excellent residential campus experience in the context of a strong Christian environment, the university provides a residential campus program at its facility in Central, South Carolina. There the rich traditions of academia are coupled with dorm-life, sports, chapel, and artistic performances.

SWU's residential campus program offers a wide variety of undergraduate majors in areas such as business, sports management, teacher education, music, English, communication, religion & ministry, biology, chemistry, math, computer science, forensics, pre-medicine, medical technology, history, recreation, psychology, social science and human services.

To serve the needs of the working adult, Southern Wesleyan University offers adult evening programs in an innovative framework. Learning centers in Greenville, Columbia, North Augusta, Charleston, and Central as well as facilities in Spartanburg and Greenwood provide opportunities to conveniently complete undergraduate and graduate programs attending classes one evening a week. The Adult & Graduate Studies programs continue year round and students enter the program at a wide variety of times during the year.

Undergraduate programs offered in the adult evening format include associate degrees in business and general studies. Also offered are bachelor of science programs in management, business administration, elementary education and human services.

Southern Wesleyan University also offers graduate programs for working adults at locations around the state of South Carolina including the Master of Business Administration (MBA), the Master of Education (MEd), the Master of Science in Management (MSM), and the Master of Ministry (MMin).

CAMPUS AND LEARNING CENTER FACILITIES

Central

Southern Wesleyan University occupies a two-hundred acre campus near the town of Central (the central point on a railway line running between Charlotte and Atlanta).

Instructional facilities on campus include Folger Fine Arts Building (1964), Brower Classroom Building (1964), Gibson Science Building (1964), Ellenburg Lecture Hall (1966), and John M. Newby Education Center (2003).

Claude R. Rickman Library (1975) is conveniently located at the center of the campus. Providing individual and group reading and study areas, the library now contains approximately 95,350 volumes, including the Wesleyana Collection.

Student residence halls include Childs Hall (1947), Stuart-Bennett Hall (1963, addition 1967), and apartments for upper-classmen. Recently finished, a new residence hall, Mullinax Hall (May 2005), provides housing for 150 students.

The Lowell E. Jennings Campus Life Center (1991) houses snack shop, bookstore, mailroom, and student services; and J. Walden Tysinger Gymnasium (1969) contains locker rooms, shower rooms, official-size hard maple basketball floor, fitness center, recreation areas, and offices for athletic personnel. The new University Dining Commons (May 2005) houses conference services and student food services.

Most administrative offices are located in Correll Hall (1947). Adult and Graduate Studies offices are located in Terry Hall (1989).

In 1997, the university acquired Eagles Rest, which is used as a retreat and conference center. Bryant Lodge (2001) serves as a gathering place for university and community events.

Greenville

In Greenville, SWU offers its Adult and Graduate programs at its Learning Center in the Henderson Advertising Tower, 84 Villa Road, Greenville, SC. The facility has 16 classrooms, a computer lab and office space.

Columbia

In Columbia, SWU offers its Adult and Graduate programs at its Learning Center at 1021 Pinnacle Point, Suite 120, Columbia, SC 29223. The facility has nine classrooms, a computer lab, a study room, and office space.

Charleston

In Charleston, SWU offers its Adult and Graduate programs at its Learning Center at 4055 Faber Place Drive, Charleston, SC. The facility has 10 classrooms, a computer lab and office space.

North Augusta

In North Augusta, SWU offers its Adult and Graduate programs at its Learning Center in the Business Technology Center, 802 East Martintown Road, N. Augusta, SC. The facility has 10 classrooms, a computer lab and office space.

ADMISSIONS INFORMATION

Admission to Southern Wesleyan University is dependent upon scholastic attainment, character, and potential to profit by the programs offered. The university welcomes applicants without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, sex, or physical handicap, so long as they have a genuine desire for a post-secondary education and possess character traits that will enable them to fit into a Christian collegiate environment.

Each application is considered individually, taking into account basic admissions requirements and the individual's unique abilities and circumstances. Acceptance is determined by the director of admissions in consultation with the Enrollment Management Committee. Applicants are notified in writing as soon as a decision is made.

Admission requirements vary depending on the program applied for.

ADMISSION TO THE RESIDENTIAL CAMPUS PROGRAM

Minimum Requirements

The following criteria must be met by those seeking regular admission to the residential campus undergraduate program:

1. A high school diploma—not a certificate of attendance—or its equivalent, reflecting a grade point average of 2.3 or higher. (A final transcript, reflecting the graduation date and certification of graduation, is required prior to the start of classes.) Courses taken in high school should include at least four units (college-preparation or equivalent) of English, two of science, two of social studies, and two of mathematics.
2. A composite score obtained from a national test, either SAT (860- combined scores from Critical Reading & Math Section) or ACT (18), or a ranking in the upper half of the high school graduating class at the time of acceptance.
3. A GPA of 2.0 or higher on all previous college work (if applicable).
4. Willingness to conform to the community and lifestyle expectations of Southern Wesleyan University.

Students may be accepted on a conditional basis if they have completed the GED high school equivalency test or are borderline in national test scores, high school GPA, class rank or college GPA.

Application Procedures

The following documents must be completed and on file before a letter of acceptance can be issued:

1. A completed application form along with a $25 non-refundable application fee (required).
2. An official transcript of all high school work. The final transcript must be sent following graduation.
3. Official transcripts of all college or university work (if applicable). The final transcript must be sent following the completion of the semester if courses are still in progress at time of application.
4. An official SAT or ACT test score (on the high school transcript or a separate official report form).

The following additional documents must be completed and returned before registration for classes:

1. Southern Wesleyan University physical examination form, including a shot record.
2. A housing form and $200 housing security deposit (resident students only).
3. A $100 matriculation fee (required of ALL students as an intention to reserve a place in the registration process).

4. Registration to attend academic orientation.

Transfer Applicants

A transfer student is defined as one who has graduated from high school and has completed any academic work at another college or university prior to coming to Southern Wesleyan. For regular admission to Southern Wesleyan University as a transfer student, the student must submit an official transcript of all academic work from all colleges or universities attended, reflecting a grade point average of 2.0 or higher. Students with a borderline GPA may be accepted on a conditional basis.

Southern Wesleyan University accepts academic credits for transfer from regionally accredited colleges. (Southern Wesleyan University will also accept credit from non-accredited institutions for which we have an established record of successful performance; credit from other institutions may be accepted provided that it is validated by portfolio assessment.)

The academic status of each transfer student will be determined by the Provost.

Students not meeting the criteria for acceptance as a regular student may, after consideration by the Enrollment Management Committee, be accepted on academic probation.

Qualified candidates for admission with advanced standing will be given full transfer credit for courses taken at regionally accredited colleges and universities, provided such courses meet the degree requirements of Southern Wesleyan University.

A maximum of 68 semester hours may be transferred from a two-year college. Generally, these are accepted only if taken during the first two years of college; however, the registrar's office may give special permission to transfer a maximum of twelve of these hours after the student has accumulated 68 total hours (Southern Wesleyan University and transfer). Transferring more than twelve semester hours after this point will require special approval by the Academic Council.

Except with special permission, transfer credits may not be among the last thirty-two hours of the degree. (Cooperative program hours count as Southern Wesleyan University hours.)

Substitutes for required courses must be approved by the division chair or the school dean.

Grades of less than 1.6 (C-) will not be accepted.

The official transcript of all transfer students will be evaluated by the registrar. Credit will be applied to the appropriate major.

International Applicants

Southern Wesleyan University welcomes to the Central campus students of the world who are in agreement with the standards of the university. To be considered for acceptance, applicants must meet all of the above requirements for acceptance, and for those whose primary language is not English, obtain an acceptable TOEFL score.

International Application Procedures

The following documents must be completed before a letter of acceptance will be issued:

1. An application form with a $25 non-refundable application fee (required).
2. An official transcript of all academic work. These must be in English or accompanied by an English translation. An explanation of the educational system, including grading scales and requirements for completion of the program, should also be included.
3. Official scores from either the SAT or ACT.

4. Official TOEFL score of 500 (paper test) or 173 (computer-based test), or equivalent score on other test format, or evidence that English is the student's native language.
5. Southern Wesleyan University physical examination form, including shot record.
6. A housing form and $200 housing security deposit (resident students only).
7. A declaration of finances form, available from the Admissions Office, listing any scholarships and grants being applied toward the educational costs.

The above items must be completed for all international students, including Canadian students by November 1 for Spring Semester and June 1 for Fall Semester.

The applicant must complete these additional procedures:

1. After receiving the letter of acceptance from the university, make a deposit equal to the expenses for the first year. This deposit will reflect all expenses not met by institutional financial aid awarded by the university through the Financial Aid Office. The I-20 form will then be issued by the registrar.
2. Report to the American Consulate in the country of residence. Submit the I-20 and all other documents needed for a student visa (I-94 form).
3. After obtaining the student visa, make arrangements to arrive at the university no later than the date on the I-20.
4. Show proof of health insurance.
5. Registration to attend academic orientation.

Applicants With Disabilities

Southern Wesleyan University recognizes anyone who has a documented impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.

Southern Wesleyan has appointed a coordinator of services to the student with disabilities as well as a Committee for Students with Disabilities. The coordinator and the committee are responsible for helping to integrate the student with a disability into the normal academic process.

Prospective students are invited to visit the university to determine how their needs might be met by the campus facilities and services. Additional information is available from the Office of Student Life.

A Word About Harassment of the Disabled

Southern Wesleyan University endeavors to create an environment in which all members of the community are treated with the dignity and respect inherent in their position as creatures made in the image of God. Not only is harassment a violation of federal law, it is contrary to principles of Christian conduct. Consequently, it is the policy of Southern Wesleyan University that harassment of individuals is unacceptable behavior and will not be tolerated. Any form of harassment is absolutely prohibited. (A copy of the Southern Wesleyan policies regarding sexual harassment and harassment of students with disabilities can be found in the SWU Student Handbook.)

Home School Applicants

Evidence demonstrates that home schooling produces students who are quite likely to be successful in college. Upon verification of home schooling registered with the department of education within the home state, Southern Wesleyan will review the application of each home schooler.

Admission Status

The admission status of students seeking a degree through the traditional program at Southern Wesleyan University is determined on the basis of academic work, class rank, and national test scores. (For non-traditional programs, see Adult and Graduate Studies.)

Distinction

These students have obtained superior ratings in their high school academic work by obtaining a GPA of 3.5 or above or ranking in the top 10% of their class and have at least 1200 SAT (combined scores from Critical Reading and Math Section) or 26 ACT.

Regular

These students have completed high school or college work satisfactorily by obtaining at least a 2.3 GPA or ranking above a 50% of their graduating class and have a test score of at least 860 SAT (combined scores from Critical Reading and Math Section) or 18 ACT.

Conditional (Academic Warning)

These students do not meet the requirements for regular admission, but all indications suggest that college level work is obtainable for them. They have a 2.00-2.29 GPA or are in the upper half of their graduating class and have obtained between 800 and 850 (combined scores from Critical Reading and Math Section) (15-17) on the national test. These students will be limited to 12-13 hours the first semester. A student with satisfactory GPA who will be taking the SAT test on campus prior to registration may be classified as conditional until final status is given.

Preliminary

Students who meet requirements for regular admission but lack certain prerequisites are given preliminary admission status while they complete the required prerequisites.

Probation

These students are below the required GPA, class rank, or national test score minimum; but through a personal interview it has been determined that a limited number of hours is possible at the college level. All such students are considered on academic probation and are required to keep the terms of an accountability contract. Students on probation are subject to certain restrictions (see p. 26). If good standing is not attained by the end of the semester, the student will be ineligible to return to Southern Wesleyan University for the next semester.

Provisional

Upon occasion, a student will be accepted on a provisional basis. This gives permission for a student to register for classes before all of the information has been received to make a full acceptance to the university. Within one week of the start of classes, this status must be cleared or acceptable arrangements made with the Admissions Office, or the student will be asked to withdraw from the university for the semester. The student is responsible for room, board, and other charges incurred while on provisional status (regular refund policies apply).

Students Seeking Readmission

At times, there may be an interruption to the student's attendance at the university. If a student finds it necessary to withdraw from classes either during the semester or at the end of the semester and does not attend Southern Wesleyan University for at least one semester, the following guidelines apply:

1. The student must submit a readmit form (available in the Admissions Office).
2. If another college has been attended, a transcript of all work must be submitted with the readmit form.

3. Before a student may begin the readmission process, or the process for interior transfer to or from Adult and Graduate Studies, approval must be given by the Business Office, Office of Student Life, and Office of Academic Records. The student will be notified of any concerns that hinder this approval.

The readmitted student is required to meet the requirements for graduation in effect at the time of readmission.

Review by the Admissions Subcommittee of the Enrollment Management Committee is required for readmission of all traditional students who are dismissed or suspended, leave on academic warning or probation, leave during the semester without officially withdrawing, or withdraw with a GPA less than 2.0. If readmitted the student may be on probation, on academic warning or in good standing, as determined by the Admissions Subcommittee.

Health Policies and Class Attendance

A Southern Wesleyan University physical examination form completed within one year prior to registration, including a complete immunization record, is required of all new students in the traditional on-campus program. Students are not permitted to register for classes until the physical examination form is fully completed and returned to the Admissions Office. Re-entering students must have on file a physical examination form completed within four years of their re-enrollment. All forms are kept by the campus nurse in the university infirmary.

Additional Information

Requests for general information about the residential campus programs or questions about application should be directed to

Director of Admissions
Southern Wesleyan University
P.O. Box 1020
Central, SC 29630-1020

or www.swu.edu. Specific answers to questions about the traditional program may be obtained by contacting the Admissions Office at 1-864-644-5550 or 1-800-C-U-AT-SWU.

ADMISSION TO THE ADULT EVENING PROGRAMS

In addition to the residential campus programs, SWU offers options for working adults to conveniently finish an associate's or bachelor's degree in an evening cohort program. Admission to these programs is open to employed adults who meet the following criteria.

Admission Requirements

The working adult who seeks admission to the Bachelor's Step I, Step II, or core program must submit the following information:

1. Proof of high school graduation or G.E.D. certificate.
2. Evidence of age 21 or older.
3. Evidence of a minimum of two years' full-time work experience.

4. Evidence of current employment. The requirement for current employment may be waived for an applicant who has been unemployed for less than six months and can demonstrate active pursuit of employment.
5. An overall grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 in previous college work. (The applicant may be admitted on a conditional basis if the GPA is below 2.0.) Official transcripts are required from all higher education institutions attended.
6. Two letters of recommendation from persons qualified to judge the applicant's professional expertise, character, and capacity for college-level study. (Generally, one should be from a supervisor.)
7. Evidence of satisfactory writing ability.

Additional requirements for a student entering the program initially at Bachelor's Step II:

8. Acceptable scores on reading and writing evaluations.
9. A minimum of 15 semester hours of acceptable general education credits.

Additional requirements for a student entering the program initially at the Bachelor's core program:

10. A minimum of 60 transferable semester credit hours earned from a regionally accredited college or university. (A maximum of 68 semester credit hours may be transferred from a two-year college. Official transcripts are required from all colleges attended.)

Readmission

Before a student may begin the readmission process or the process for interior transfer to or from adult and graduate studies, the AGS Accounting Office, Office of Academic Records, and Student Services Office must give approval.

ADMISSION TO THE GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate programs in Business Administration, Management, Education, and Ministry are offered at multiple locations around the state of South Carolina. Admission criteria may vary by program (see below).

Graduate Admission Requirements

The following criteria apply to all graduate programs:

1. Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited (or, for the M. Min. program, an Association for Biblical Higher Education accredited) college or university.
2. The specified minimum cumulative grade point average on all undergraduate course work or on the final 60 hours of undergraduate course work. Based on a 4.0 scale, M.Ed. requires 3.0; other programs require 2.7.
3. Official transcripts of all college-level course work, both undergraduate and graduate.
4. Two letters of recommendation from persons qualified to judge the applicant's moral character, professional expertise, and capacity for graduate-level work.
5. Official TOEFL score of at least 550 (paper test), 213 (computer test) or equivalent evidence of proficiency in English (for applicants for whom English is a second language).
6. Completion of specified program prerequisites (or co-requisites).
7. Satisfactory interview with designated committee or academic division, if required.
8. Experience and employment, as specified for each program.
9. Satisfactory score on the Graduate Record Exam, Miller Analogies Test, or Graduate Management Admissions Test, as specified for the degree program. Official records are required from the testing organization.

Graduate Admission Status

Regular--Applicant meets all requirements and has completed all program prerequisites.

Preliminary--Applicant meets all requirements for regular admission but lacks one or more program prerequisites.

Conditional--Applicant is admitted by action of the Graduate Admissions Committee, which may specify special requirements. Any specified requirements must be met no later than the end of the second graduate class. Regular admission after an admission on condition requires earning a grade of 3.0 in each of the first two courses taken in the master's degree program.

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Additional Admission Requirements

1. A satisfactory score on the Graduate Record Exam, Miller Analogies Test, or Graduate Management Admissions Test. (Graduates of Southern Wesleyan University holding a degree in business or management with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or above on all undergraduate course work or on the final 60 hours of undergraduate course work are not required to submit a test score; a GPA below 3.0 for Southern Wesleyan University graduates requires both test scores and evaluation by Graduate Admissions Committee).
2. Submission of an acceptable essay or writing sample as part of the application process.
3. Completion of program prerequisites: three semester hours in accounting, three semester hours in economics, and three semester hours in statistics.
4. Evidence of current employment, two years of significant work experience, and eighteen undergraduate semester hours in business administration, management, human resource management, or marketing; or three years of managerial experience.
5. Appropriate work experience for those currently unemployed includes five years of significant work experience and eighteen undergraduate semester hours in business administration, management, human resource management, or marketing; or five years of managerial experience.

Master of Education (MEd)

Additional Admissions Requirements

1. Current employment with a minimum of one year experience as an administrator or teacher such that the teacher's classroom can serve as a "laboratory" for the completion of course requirements.
2. Teaching certificate from the State of South Carolina or equivalent out-of-state certification. A student without teaching certification may appeal for admission. Such an appeal must be accompanied by minimum GRE scores of 840 on math and verbal and a 4 in writing or a Miller Analogies Test score of at least 389.

The M.Ed. program curriculum does not lead to initial teacher certification in the state of South Carolina.

Master of Science in Management (MSM)

Additional Admission Requirements

In addition to the general admission requirements listed above, an applicant for admission to the Master of Science in Management program must

1. Provide evidence of current employment, one year of significant work experience and twelve undergraduate semester hours in business administration, management, human resource management, or marketing; or three years of managerial experience relevant to the program. Appropriate work experience for those currently unemployed includes three years of significant work experience and twelve undergraduate semester hours in business administration, management, human resource management, or marketing; or three years managerial experience.
2. Submit an acceptable writing sample with the application and, when required by the Graduate Admissions Committee, satisfactory results of a counseling interview.

Master of Ministry (MMin)

Additional Admission Requirements

1. Submit a brief biographical sketch including vocational experiences, spiritual journey, and professional goals for the future.
2. Complete prerequisites or co-requisites of 12 hours of college work in religion, Bible, or ethics. An applicant who meets the other criteria but does not have the required prerequisites may be admitted on a preliminary basis. Southern Wesleyan's religion faculty will provide counsel to help develop an individual plan for meeting the 12-hour requirement.
3. Provide evidence of at least two years of active Christian ministry or obtain approval for alternate experience.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

GENERAL UNDERGRADUATE POLICIES

Degrees Offered

Southern Wesleyan University offers undergraduate courses of study leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) or Bachelor of Science (B.S.).

A candidate for the B.A. degree must complete 128 semester hours, including required general education courses, and 24-35 hours of courses specified as giving major credit. The B.A. degree is available with majors in biology, business administration, chemistry, English, English education, history, mathematics, mathematics education, music, religion, and social science.

A candidate for the B.S. degree must complete 128 semester hours, including required general education credits, at least 36 hours of specified, non-general education courses, and at least nine hours of electives. The B.S. degree is available with majors in accounting, applied computer science, biology, business administration, chemistry, communication, elementary education, forensic computer science, forensic science, human services, management, management of information technology, mathematics, medical technology, music, physical education, pre-dentistry, pre-medicine, psychology, recreation, special education, sports management and tourism.

A second baccalaureate degree may be earned by completing an additional 30 hours in residence and by fulfilling all requirements for the second degree.

Specialized Major

The specialized major is intended to encourage studies with flexible and unique academic interests, not met by existing majors, to develop an individualized or multidisciplinary course of study. This option is only available through the residential campus program.

Guidelines for students who wish to pursue a degree with a specialized major:

- By the end of the sophomore year, identify a faculty advisor who has expertise in the student's area(s) of interest and is willing to work with the student.
- In consultation with the faculty advisor and appropriate division chair(s), design a plan of study no later than the end of the sophomore year and obtain approval of the Academic Council at least three semesters before the anticipated date of graduation. (The design plan should include a suggested title for the major.)
- Assure that the program of study includes the following:
 - A minimum of 128 semester credit hours leading to a bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degree
 - All general education requirements
 - A statement of goals and expected outcomes for the course of study
 - At least 30 hours of coursework at the 300-400 level in the areas of concentration
- Meet the following academic criteria in the program of study:
 - A grade of 1.6 or higher in all courses taken in designated areas of concentration
 - A cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher

Minors

In addition to completing the requirements necessary to constitute a major, a student at Southern Wesleyan University may complete one or more minors in certain disciplines.

A minor consists of 18 to 24 semester hours of specified courses in the discipline. At least six hours of courses to be included in the minor must be taken under Southern Wesleyan University faculty.

Minors are available in accounting, Bible, biology, business administration, chemistry, criminal justice, e-commerce, English, finance and economics, history, human services, Internet computing, management, mathematics, missions, music, psychology, social science, and youth ministry.

Concentration

The term concentration designates an area of emphasis within a major. In some majors (religion, for example), a student must choose at least one area of concentration. In other majors (for example, English), a student may choose either to remain a generalist or to select courses that concentrate on an area of special interest.

Cognate

A cognate is a set of courses that provide a particular focus when added to an existing academic major. Unlike a minor, these courses supplement a major and do not provide the “stand-alone” emphasis that characterize a minor. Therefore, the cognate will not appear on a student’s transcript unless the related major is completed.

Classification of Students

Regular students are academically classified according to the number of semester hours successfully completed:

Freshmen	0-29 hours	Juniors	60-89 hours
Sophomores	30-59 hours	Seniors	90 and above

Competency Requirements

Satisfactory demonstration of competency in the following areas is required for graduation from all undergraduate programs.

COMPETENCY IN COMPUTING: Competency in computing may be established by earning a minimum of 1.6 on the lab exam in CPSC 1103 and a minimum of 1.6 in the course. Students in the traditional program may also establish competency by scoring 70% on the final written exam of CPSC 1103 and a 1.6 on the lab exam. A fee will be charged for such special examinations. Students in the Adult and Graduate program may establish competency by passing MGMT 2164 Introduction to Management for Information Systems. Competency may also be established through transfer of a course equivalent to CPSC 1103 from another accredited institution, or through a CLEP test. Students transferring credit to Southern Wesleyan University or reentering Southern Wesleyan University after not being a student here for five or more years cannot establish competency by a course, portfolio experience, or test taken five or more years previously.

COMPETENCY IN ORAL COMMUNICATION: Students are certified as having established competency in oral communication when they have successfully completed ENGL 2053, ENGL 2093, or ENGL 2103. Students transferring credit for all twelve hours of required general education English courses and having a course of study that allows no room for electives may satisfy the competency requirement through an oral presentation evaluated as satisfactory by a member of the English faculty or a designated trained alternate.

COMPETENCY IN WRITTEN COMMUNICATION: Students establish competency in written communication by successfully completing ENGL 1003, ENGL 1054, ENGL 2093 or transferable equivalent.

MATHEMATICS COMPETENCY: The math competency requirement may be satisfied by either a score of 50 or higher on the math competency test, a grade of 1.6 in MATH 1003, 1023, 1024, 1033, 2504 or transferable equivalent.

Time Limitations

Students entering Southern Wesleyan University as freshmen must establish competency in mathematics, reading, and written communication by the time they have attempted 48 semester hours at Southern Wesleyan University; all other degree-seeking students must establish competency in these areas by the end of their first semester (12 semester hours attempted). A student who does not meet the deadline will be placed on academic warning for the following semester. Students placed on academic warning are allowed no class cuts. (See p. 26 for academic warning and probation sequence and restrictions.) Additional restrictions may apply to students in non-semester based programs through Adult and Graduate Studies (see the AGS Handbook for details).

Grades

All grades are reported in increments of 0.1 and range from 4.0 to NC, according to following scale:

3.9-4.0	A
3.6-3.8	A-	Superior
3.3-3.5	B+
3.0-3.2	B	Excellent
2.7-2.9	B-
2.3-2.6	C+
1.9-2.2	C	Average
1.6-1.8	C-
1.3-1.5	D+
1.0-1.2	D	Passing
0.0		No Credit
NC		No Credit (does not affect GPA)
P		Pass
S		Satisfactory completion but no credit toward graduation
I		Incomplete
W		Withdrew
WG		Withdrew from a graduate course

Grade Point Average

A student's Grade Point Average (GPA) is calculated by dividing the number of grade points earned by the number of credits attempted (excluding P and S grades).

In calculating undergraduate cumulative GPA, up to twelve credits with a grade of 0.0 earned before July 1, 1998 will not be included in the calculation. If a course is repeated, only the highest grade will be used to calculate the cumulative GPA.

For certain purposes specifically indicated in this catalog, the GPA is calculated on all work attempted. A GPA calculated on all work attempted includes all work earning an NC or 0.0 in the calculation, and the "NC" is given a value of 0.0 grade point.

Courses receiving grades of less than 1.6 (C) will not be applied toward major, minor, or concentration requirements, or toward other specified requirements within a major, without permission from the major advisor and the academic dean.

The graduate cumulative GPA is calculated on all work attempted.

No grade below 2.0 may be applied toward a graduate degree. Grades for traditional students are mailed by the Office of Academic Records after the end of the semester. Grades for AGS and students, including all graduate courses, are mailed after the end of each course.

Pass-No Credit Courses

Courses that are graded with a high degree of subjectivity, or where evaluation is based on the simple completion of a specific list of requirements, will be graded on a P/NC basis. Credit earned on this basis will count towards graduation but will not affect the student's GPA.

Seniors may register for one elective course per semester for which they will receive the grade of Pass/No Credit. This option is reserved to students with a GPA of 2.5 or higher and cannot apply toward a major, departmental requirements, courses required for teacher certification, or ordination. Also, instructors may remove any of their courses from this option. Arrangements for this option are to be completed at the time of registration.

Incompletes

Under extenuating circumstances a student, with permission of the appropriate academic dean and the faculty member involved, may be allowed to carry an incomplete grade until all required course work is completed.

The faculty member and the student will mutually determine the amount of time needed to complete the work, within a maximum of five (5) calendar weeks from the last day of classes.

The faculty member will recommend an incomplete only after ascertaining that all daily work is passed and that the student lacks completing only a relatively small amount of the semester's work.

Veterans' Benefits and Grades

Grade point averages for those receiving veterans' benefits will be calculated on all work attempted. For certification of enrollment, those eligible should contact the Office of Academic Records.

Federal and State Financial Aid and Grades

In determining eligibility for state and federal financial aid, the cumulative grade point average will be calculated on all work attempted.

Academic Honesty

Honesty in all matters—including honesty in academic endeavors—is a valued principle at Southern Wesleyan University. Members of this community of learners (students, faculty, facilitators, staff, and administrators) are expected to treat each other as honorable unless this trust is betrayed.

Any form of academic dishonesty (including cheating, plagiarism, and falsification of documents) constitutes a serious breach of trust. No form of academic dishonesty will be tolerated. Students are encouraged to confront offenders when academic dishonesty is observed. If the offender does not confess to the faculty member involved, students are expected to report the dishonesty to the faculty member directly.

Faculty members are in charge of their classrooms and are encouraged to be present during exams. All community members are encouraged to avoid increasing temptations for dishonesty. At the beginning of the semester, faculty members are encouraged to convey and to interpret their policy on plagiarism (academic dishonesty involving the use of another's material, methods, or ideas without properly acknowledging the originator).

Students are required to sign the following pledge on work turned in for credit. "I have neither been dishonest nor do I know of any dishonesty by others on this work." Any violation in fact or spirit is considered academic dishonesty.

If a student cheats and confesses, the penalty is no credit (NC) or zero (0) on the work involved. This confession may result from the student's own conscience or as a result of confrontation by a fellow student.

If a student admits cheating after confrontation by a faculty member, the penalty is no credit (NC) or zero (0) on the work involved and a 10% grade reduction in the course.

If there is evidence of academic dishonesty either by voluntary confession, report of another student, or on the basis of work submitted, the faculty member should follow this procedure:

1. Notify the provost.
2. Be advised by the provost of any previous academic dishonesty by that student.
3. Confront the student in the presence of another faculty member 24 hours or more after the work is submitted. (If there is danger the evidence may be lost, such evidence may be seized at once.)
4. Implement the appropriate discipline for the student's response, inform the student of the right to appeal, and report the discipline implemented to the provost.
 - A. student's confession - NC or 0 for work involved
 - B. admission after confrontation by faculty member - NC or 0 on work and 10% course grade reduction
 - C. denial of guilt and faculty member believes innocence - no penalty
 - D. denial of guilt but faculty member believes guilt - 0 for the course

Academic Appeals

Grade-Appeal Procedures

The university has approved a formal procedure for resolving those occasions when a student actively disagrees with the grade received in a course:

1. No later than four weeks after the grade is posted, the student will confer with the instructor. If a grade inaccuracy is determined, the instructor will process a grade-change request.
2. If agreement cannot be reached, the student may appeal to the instructor's division chair, in writing, within ten working days after the meeting with the instructor. If the division chair can mediate an agreement between the student and instructor, a grade-change request may be processed. If no agreement can be reached, or if the instructor is also the division chair, or if there is not division chair as in the case of Business & Education, the next step is applicable.
3. The student may appeal the decision to the academic dean of the appropriate college or school, in writing, again within ten working days. The academic dean shall investigate and render a decision. A decision by the academic dean that the grade is not appeal able is final.

If the decision is to reconsider the grade, the academic dean shall within ten working days in consultation with the provost, assign the appeal to the Academic Council or its designated appeals committee to review all appropriate material, consult the parties involved, and determine the final grade. The Council may retain the original grade or assign a new grade (which may be the same as, higher than, or lower than the grade in question), and it will so inform the registrar. The decision of the Academic Council is final.

Appeals (Cases of Alleged Academic Dishonesty)

If a student is charged with academic dishonesty and the matter is not resolved with the faculty member, the student may appeal to the instructor's division chair, in writing, within ten working days after being informed that the grade for the course will be 0. If the division chair can mediate an agreement between the student and instructor, a grade-change request may be processed, if necessary.

If no agreement can be reached or if the instructor is also the division chair, or if there is not division chair as in the case of Business & Education, the student may appeal the decision to the appropriate academic dean, in writing, again within ten working days. The academic dean shall investigate and render a decision.

Within ten working days after being informed of the decision, either the instructor or the student may appeal the dean's decision to the Academic Council. The Academic Council or its designated appeals committee will review all appropriate material, consult the parties involved, and determine the final penalty. The decision of the Academic Council is final. Academic dishonesty discovered outside the context of a course or after a course is complete will be dealt with in a manner appropriate to the situation. The penalty may include such sanctions as rescinding of credit previously awarded, expulsion from the university, revocation of certificates, honors or diplomas, and, in case of fraud, appropriate legal action. Appeals in these cases will be heard by the provost, with final appeal to the Academic Council.

Other Academic Appeals

Students seeking an exception to the application of a stated policy of the university may appeal in writing to the Vice President for Academic Services who will refer the appeal to the administrator responsible for the application of the particular policy. If the matter cannot be resolved at that level, the matter may be referred to the provost within 10 days of the decision. The provost will investigate and render a decision. A decision by the provost that the matter is not appeal able is final.

If the decision is to consider an exception to the policy, the provost will either make the appropriate change or, within ten working days, assign the appeal to the Academic Council or its designated appeals committee to review all appropriate material, consult the parties involved, and make a determination. The decision of the Academic Council is final.

Honors

Alpha Chi

Southern Wesleyan University sponsors a chapter of the national honorary society Alpha Chi. To be eligible for selection, a student must have completed at least 60 hours of course work at Southern Wesleyan University. Membership is limited to the top ten percent (all college work included) of the senior class and top five percent of the junior class. Eligibility for membership is determined by the provost and election is by the Academic Council during the spring semester of each year.

Dean's List

At the close of each semester, the provost & vice president for academic affairs will publish a list of those undergraduate students who have carried at least 12 hours of college credit within the preceding semester (or the previous 6 months in the case of continuous enrollment students), have no grade for any single course below 3.0, and have earned a GPA of at least 3.5.

Graduation Honors

Graduating seniors with outstanding scholarship will qualify for the following honors, to be recognized at commencement:

Cum Laude: A cumulative GPA of at least 3.4 on all college work attempted (NC and 0.0 count as 0.0).

Magna Cum Laude: A cumulative GPA of at least 3.6 on all college work attempted.

Summa Cum Laude: A cumulative GPA of at least 3.8 on all college work attempted.

To be eligible for graduation honors, a student transferring from another college must complete at least 60 hours under Southern Wesleyan faculty.

All grades earned at any institution are used in determining GPA, but no honors will be awarded that require a GPA higher than that earned at Southern Wesleyan.

Sigma Tau Delta

Under the sponsorship of the Modern Languages Division, Southern Wesleyan University initiated the Alpha Xi Lambda Chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, the international honorary English society during the Spring semester of 2007... Founded in 1924 by Professor Judson Q. Owen at Dakota Wesleyan College, Sigma Tau Delta is now one of the largest members of the Association of College Honor Societies. Sigma Tau Delta's purpose is to confer distinction upon students of English language and literature in undergraduate, graduate, and professional studies. Sigma Tau Delta also recognizes the accomplishments of professional writers who have contributed to the fields of language and literature. The Alpha Xi Lambda Chapter began with 12 charter members. New members will be added each year as qualifying criteria are met.

Class Attendance

To receive credit for a course, a student must be present for at least 75% of the class meetings in the course. No credit will be given in any course in which the total number of absences exceeds 25% of the class meetings. This number includes any authorized travel that causes a student to miss classes (for example, field trips, athletic competition, musical performances).

Once students have missed 25% of the class meetings in a course, they are no longer allowed to participate in activities that would take them away from the classroom.

Disciplinary Dismissal

A student dismissed or expelled from the university for disciplinary reasons will receive academic credit only for courses already completed at the time of dismissal.

Examinations

Examinations and announced tests missed because of an unexcused absence cannot be made up. Make-up of work missed because of excused absences should be arranged with the teacher before the absences, if possible.

Re-examinations are given only under exceptional circumstances and then only with the permission of the academic dean.

Privacy of Student Educational Records

Southern Wesleyan University intends to comply fully with the Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act of 1974 (see <http://www.ed.gov/policy/gen/reg/ferpa/index.html>). The policy statement available from the Registrar or on the SWU web site explains the procedures for compliance. Copies are available on request.

The following categories of personally identifiable information have been designated as public or "directory" information that may be disclosed for any purpose without student consent: name, local and permanent address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees and awards (including scholarships) received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, and weight and height of members of an athletic team.

Currently enrolled students may withhold disclosure of information in any category by completing the appropriate form available in the Registrar's Office. Written requests for non-disclosure will be honored for a maximum of one year. Southern Wesleyan University assumes that failure to complete the request indicates approval of disclosure.

The law also provides the following rights for students with respect to their education records:

1. To inspect and review information contained in records.
2. To challenge the content of records.
3. To be granted a hearing if the outcome of the challenge is unsatisfactory to the student.
4. To submit an explanatory statement for inclusion in the record if the outcome of the hearing is unsatisfactory.
5. To prevent disclosure, with certain exceptions, of personally identifiable information.
6. To secure a copy of the Southern Wesleyan University policy of education records.

Special Instruction Arrangements

Tutorial Instruction

On occasion it may be necessary for a student to receive instruction on an individual basis from a member of the university faculty. When this is necessary, the instructor will spend the full amount of class time with the student, and the tutorial fee will be one and one-half times the regular tuition fee.

Directed Study

Directed Study is a form of instruction that allows a student to take a regular catalog course in an independent context. The course work will be done essentially independently, but under the supervision of the regular instructor; regular credit is given.

Directed Study courses are designed as an exception and are not open to all students. Directed study courses are for the benefit of the student who needs a currently unavailable course; for example, one not scheduled for the semester when it is essential for graduation.

To enroll in a directed study course students must have earned at least 60 credit hours (junior status) and have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5. Students may take no more than three credit hours per semester or summer term as directed study. In addition, a student's academic program may contain no more than 12 hours of directed study and no more than 25% of the course work in the student's major or minor. Course approval and registration for directed study courses must be made prior to the professor assigning any work for credit.

Signatures of the division chair and the dean of the course requested are required. Permission forms are available at the academic records office. In addition to regular tuition, a directed study fee will be charged.

The directed study fee may be waived if the student provides evidence that the directed study was made necessary by university policies, decisions, or actions.

Independent Study

A course in independent study is available in each major offered by the university, to enable stronger students to enrich their program by studies or research opportunities not generally available in formal courses.

To be eligible for independent study, a student must have a cumulative GPA of no less than 3.0 on all work attempted. Up to eight hours of credit may be earned, but no more than three hours in any one semester.

To register for independent study, the student must obtain the signatures of the division chair and the dean of the course requested.

Senior Practicum

Students who have demonstrated the potential for profiting from an extended field experience may be placed in a senior practicum. Prerequisite for senior practicum is competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing.

Eligibility for the practicum will be determined by the academic advisor and coordinator of studies for the major. The coordinator of studies is responsible for approving arrangements for the practicum.

Students on social probation are not allowed to register for a senior practicum, including directed teaching. Students who are placed on probation during a semester or session will not be allowed to complete a senior practicum course.

Travel Courses

Faculty in charge of courses involving extensive travel should consult the vice-president for student life to determine whether or not a student wishing to take such a course is on social probation. If so, the instructor may prohibit such a person from registering for the course or from completing it.

RESIDENTIAL CAMPUS UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Requirements for Graduation

All undergraduate degrees obtained through the residential campus programs include the following requirements.

General Education

- I. Completion of the following program of general education (In some majors, specific courses are designated.)

DIVISION

FINE ARTS

ASTH 2053 Aesthetics	3
or ASTH 4013 Studies in Aesthetics or two consecutive semesters of music ensemble totaling 3 hrs.

MODERN LANGUAGES

All students must enroll in English until they complete ENGL 1013. Withdrawal is not permitted until after the last day to drop without record but must be completed before the final withdrawal date. Students must first consult both their advisor and the instructor before dropping a course.

TOTAL GENERAL EDUCATION HOURS 54

Additional Requirements

2. A concentration of studies constituting a major (transfer students must complete at least nine hours of upper-level courses in the major discipline at Southern Wesleyan).
3. Competency in computing, mathematics, oral and written composition.
4. A total of 128 semester hours with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0. At least 32 semester hours must be taken by study under the faculty of Southern Wesleyan University, and, except in some cooperative programs, these must be the final 32 semester hours. At least the last 60 semester hours must be in institutions granting the baccalaureate (bachelor's) degree.
5. Satisfactory participation in all required divisional and university assessment activities.
6. Fulfillment of all chapel requirements.
7. Recommendation by the faculty (Academic Council) and approval by the Trustees of Southern Wesleyan University.
8. Application for graduation: It is the student's responsibility to see that all requirements for graduation are met and that application for a diploma is made by the dates specified in the university calendar.

All graduation requirements must be completed, and all financial obligations must be cleared before participation in graduation activities is permitted.

Advanced Placement and Alternative Sources of Credit

Advanced placement and credit may be granted for grades of 3 or above on an Advanced Placement Test (AP Test). However, this award is dependent on the subject and is not universal. Additional information is available from the Office of Academic Records.

A maximum of 68 hours credit will be awarded in any combination of the following areas: CLEP/DANTES (following guidelines recommended by the American Council on Education), Advanced Placement testing, military credit, portfolio, departmental exams, and correspondence. A fee will be charged for granting all such credit except Advanced Placement and military. Additional information is available from the Office of Academic Records.

Honors Program

Incoming students with excellent high school records and national assessment tests (SAT, ACT) are invited to join the Honors Program at Southern Wesleyan. Once accepted for admission to the university, students with these credentials will be evaluated, and letters will be sent to those who qualify.

Benefits of the program include academic leadership opportunities, alternative or expanded engagements in class and coursework, opportunities to explore a topic or area of choice in a more in-depth format, preparation for post-graduate work, and notation on transcript and in the graduation ceremony.

Students in the Honors Program are expected to demonstrate a high level of participation in class—discussion, reports, debates, and presentations. They are also expected to demonstrate abilities like the following: thinking, discussing, writing; analyzing, synthesizing, and gathering and presenting information from a variety of sources and viewpoints.

The honors program consists of coursework and non-credit and service opportunities. Students are expected to maintain an overall grade point average of 3.5 or higher.

The coursework consists of 18 semester hours in the following breakdown:

Honors Freshman Seminar	1
Honors New Testament Survey	3
Honors Seminar: Intro to Research	1
Honors Christian Lifestyle and Values	1
Honors Courses in Major	6
Honors Independent Study Research Proposal	1
Honors Major Project	3
Honors Jr./Sr. Seminar	2

Major Honors

Outstanding students may, during the first semester of their junior year, petition the Academic Council for permission to undertake an honors project in the field of their major. To be eligible, the student must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in all work attempted and at least a 3.25 in the major.

This honors program will consist of study, reading, and possibly laboratory work or music practice, and will culminate in a scholarly production. The entire program is supervised by a committee selected by the major advisor in conjunction with the Academic Council.

Three hours of elective credit is awarded during the second semester of the senior year for successful projects. Additional details are available from the faculty advisor.

May Term and Summer School

Courses offered during the May term and summer sessions are arranged to help students make up deficiencies or to accelerate their programs. The same academic standards are maintained as in the regular semesters. Because of the accelerated nature of these programs, no unexcused absences are allowed.

The number of hours a student may take is limited by the length of the term: a maximum of four hours is allowed for a term of three weeks or less; a maximum of seven is allowed for a four-week term.

No course may be entered after the second day of the session. Withdrawal from a course without record is possible through the tenth day of the term. Tuition will be refunded, minus 25% per day, between dates of registration and withdrawal.

Courses to be taken at another summer school are to be cleared in advance with the registrar to assure equivalency and transfer credit.

Registration

All students must register by "enrollment day" as indicated on the college calendar. Failure to do so will result in assessment of a late registration fee.

A student should not register for a course that conflicts with a required basic course. If two required courses conflict, registration should be for the lower-level course.

Each student is assigned a faculty advisor at the time of admission. The advisor must be consulted before the registration process begins.

Course Load

A normal course load is 16 hours per semester. Those registering for 12 or more hours will be considered full-time students; those for fewer than 12, part-time.

No student may exceed 18 hours without permission of the faculty advisor and the appropriate academic dean.

Adding or Dropping Courses/Withdrawal

Up to the dates indicated in the calendar, courses may be added or dropped (for a fee) according to the following procedure:

1. Obtain forms from the Office of Academic Records and fill them out properly.
2. Secure approval of the advisor and financial aid officer.
3. Return the forms to the Office of Academic Records.

If a course is dropped within the first four weeks of classes, no record is made. Classes dropped between the end of the fourth week of classes and before the end of the eighth week will be assigned a grade of W. Classes dropped after the last scheduled day for dropping a course will incur an NC or 0, except in the case of withdrawal from school when a W will be assigned. Those withdrawing from school should contact the Counseling Center. Exceptions to these rules must be handled by the appropriate academic dean.

Students who must miss the first class session of any course in the residential campus program must contact the instructor of the course ahead of time. If no prior arrangement is made, students missing the first session will be automatically dropped from the course. They may still add the course later through the process described above. However, if the course has a waiting list, students on the waiting list would have priority.

Good Standing

At the close of each semester and the second semester of summer school, a student's record will be reviewed to determine eligibility for continuation without restriction.

To remain in good standing, a student must earn the GPA (semester and cumulative) indicated:

Hrs. Attempted	GPA
12	1.6
24	1.6
36	1.7
60 and above	2.0

Any student who fails to meet these requirements will be placed on academic warning for the following semester. Students placed on academic warning will be advised to limit co-curricular activities and they are allowed no unexcused absences from classes.

Any student who does not attain good standing by the end of the semester on academic warning will be placed on academic probation. Students who are on probation are allowed no class cuts and have limits on the extent they may represent the university (see details below). By the end of the semester of probation the student must meet the requirements for good standing or be suspended for one full semester. (Attendance at May term and summer school is permitted.)

Following one semester of suspension, the student may apply for readmission. After an interview with the Admissions Subcommittee, the student may be readmitted on probation and (if admitted) will have one semester to attain good standing or face permanent exclusion.

For transfer, part-time, or special students, the academic dean will determine standing.

Representing the University

Representing the university is a responsibility and a privilege; therefore, such representation is generally carried out only by students in good standing. Also, off-campus overnight travel may make it difficult for students on academic probation to do well enough in their studies to remove probation; therefore, students on probation should not be involved in the following:

- membership in the homecoming court
- holding office in university organizations
- having a continuing role in leading chapel
- phonathon
- ministry teams
- intervarsity athletics, including travel with the team in a support role
(Students on probation may practice on campus.)
- *senior practicum, including directed teaching
- *Christian Service Organization (CSO) teams
- *traveling ensembles
- *major dramatic productions

*Exceptions: Students for whom participation in one of these activities is a degree requirement may be allowed to participate, even if on academic probation. If the allowed activity is CSO, the director should assign limited activities, not to exceed three overnight trips in a semester.

The provost will issue a list of those on probation at the beginning of each semester. Faculty sponsors, instructors, and others in charge of activities prohibited above, or of other activities which make heavy extra-class demands on a student's time, or which involve representing the university, should consult this list and take action to advise against or prohibit participation. Because a student may be placed on social probation during a semester or session, those in charge should also consult the vice-president for student life when the activity begins.

Who's Who

During the fall semester each year, nominees are selected from the roster of graduating seniors for inclusion in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Candidates will be nominated by student vote and elected by faculty vote, using the criteria of character, scholarship, leadership, and participation in co-curricular activities.

ADULT EVENING UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Programs Offered

Southern Wesleyan University offers several options to working adults who may wish to complete an undergraduate degree in a format that fits their busy lifestyle. The following degree programs are offered in cohort-based, lock-step format on a year-round evening schedule. The degrees available at any given learning center may vary.

- Associate of Science in Business
- Associate of Arts in General Studies
- Bachelor of Science in Management
- Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
- Bachelor of Science in Human Services
- Bachelor of Science in Education

Bachelor's Step I and II and the Associate of Science Degree

The Southern Wesleyan University AGS program provides structured degree preparation programs (Bachelor's Step I and Bachelor's Step II) for students who do not have sufficient college credits to be admitted to a bachelor's degree-completion core program. Students may earn an Associate of Science degree by completing a total of 64 semester hours, including specified elements of Step I and Step II.

Step I is a lock-step program consisting of 29 semester credit hours of general education requirements. Step II consists of 34 semester credit hours, most of which are additional required courses for the associate's degree. Step II courses can also serve as elective credits for the bachelor's degree.

Generally, the Step II core will be provided on a rolling or cyclical basis.

In many cases, students with 30 to 59 hours of transfer credit will be advised to register for blocks of Step I or II courses to earn general education or elective hours to qualify for admission to a bachelor's degree completion core.

Associate Degree Graduation Requirements

The Associate of Science and the Associate of Arts degrees require a minimum of 64 semester hours of credit, including required general education course work, specified courses, and any remaining elective credits. Students who have no college credit can earn the associate's degree by completing the Associate of Arts sequence or all the courses in Step I (general education requirements), Step II (required business and elective courses), and one additional elective credit to total 64 semester credits in the Associate of Science. A minimum of 16 credits of required course work in Step II must be earned under instruction of Southern Wesleyan University faculty to be awarded the Associate of Science degree. In each degree program, some courses must be taken at Southern Wesleyan University in order to count toward the degree.

The following are the graduation requirements at the Associate level:

1. Completion of 28 semester hours of credit in the following general education areas:

English Composition I	3
Additional English Composition or Speech	3
Literature (sophomore level or above)	3
Aesthetics (any Fine Arts)	3
Bible (Old Testament)	3
Bible (New Testament)	3
Christian Theology	3
Science with lab	3
History	3
Physical Education	1

(Completion of the courses required in the sequence meets general education requirements.)
2. Completion of the required courses in the sequence or their transferable equivalent.
3. Completion of 64 semester hours with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.
4. Establishment of competency in computing, math, oral communication, and writing.
5. Satisfactory participation in all required divisional and university assessment activities.
6. Recommendation by the faculty and approval by the Trustees of Southern Wesleyan University.
7. Application for graduation: It is the student's responsibility to see that all requirements for graduation are met and that application for a diploma is made by the dates specified in the university calendar.
8. Payment of all tuition, fees, and other charges.

Bachelor of Science Graduation Requirements

1. The following general education requirements:

Freshman English Composition I	3 semester hours
Additional English Composition or Speech	3
Literature	3
Aesthetics (any Fine Arts)	3
Bible (Old Testament)	3
Bible (New Testament)	3
Christian Theology	3
Lab Science	3
Physical Education	1
	28 semester hours

(Twelve additional general education hours are included in the core courses of each bachelor's program.)
2. Completion of each course in the specified core with a minimum grade of I.6.
3. Completion of 128 semester credits with a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0.

4. Demonstration of competency in computing, math, oral communication, reading, and writing.
5. Satisfactory participation in all required divisional and university assessment activities.
6. Recommendation by the faculty and approval by the Trustees of Southern Wesleyan University.
7. Application for graduation: It is the student's responsibility to see that all requirements for graduation are met and that application for a diploma is made by the dates specified in the university calendar.
8. Payment of all tuition, fees, and other charges.

Study Groups

During the first course in each sequence, students must form study groups of three to five members. Each student must be a member of a study group. Weekly attendance is required and will be monitored. Non-attendance at study group meetings will be handled the same as non-attendance for in-class instruction. Specifically, students' grades may be affected and/or students may be withdrawn from the class for absences as outlined by institutional attendance policy. The attendance and grading policy for the study group participation and the in-class participation parallel each other.

Southern Wesleyan University reserves the right to administratively reorganize study groups or request that study groups be restructured to comply with the university and government regulations.

Good Standing & Probation

In order to remain in good standing in the adult undergraduate programs, a student must maintain a GPA of 2.0 or higher. If a student's Southern Wesleyan University GPA falls below 2.0, that student is placed on academic probation. The student then has the next two consecutive courses to raise his or her SWU GPA to 2.0. If by the end of the second course the student has failed to achieve the required GPA, the student will be academically suspended.

An adult undergraduate student admitted conditionally based on an incoming GPA of less than 2.0 must maintain a 2.0 in both of the first two courses in the sequence in order to continue in the program. If conditions are not met, administrative withdrawal from the program will occur.

Academic Suspension

Academic suspension results if the terms of probation are not met (see above). Suspended students are not eligible for readmission for six months. After that period, a formal application for readmission must be submitted in accordance with the admissions procedures of Southern Wesleyan University. In addition, the applicant should explain the reason for the academic deficiencies, the manner in which the intervening time has been spent, and why the applicant should be considered for readmission.

If a student has received two sequential course grades of incomplete (I), two grades of 0.0, or a combination of one incomplete and one grade of 0.0 he or she will be administratively withdrawn (though not academically suspended). Arrangements must be made through the Academic Records Office to re-enter the program.

For pricing, class start, and general program information, call 1-800-264-5327. For financial aid, grade information, and specific class schedules, call 1-800-282-8798.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS ACADEMIC INFORMATION

The university offers the following graduate programs: Master of Business Administration, Master of Education, Master of Ministry, and Master of Science in Management. The Master of Ministry program is offered in Central and occasionally in High Point, North Carolina. All other graduate programs are offered at selected approved sites in South Carolina. They are all designed with the working adult in mind.

Transfer policy

For all programs except the M.Ed., a maximum of two three-semester hour graduate-level courses for a total of six semester hours may be transferred from other regionally accredited institutions provided that

- The grade for the transferred course is 3.0 (B) or greater.
- The course was completed within the previous five years.
- The program director judges the course to satisfy specified requirements in the graduate curriculum.

Up to twelve hours of elective credit can be accepted in the M. Ed. Program if the course work has been completed in the student's area of certification and if no course was completed longer than five years prior to starting the SWU M.Ed. program.

Candidacy

Candidacy for the master's degree is achieved upon regular admission to the respective program.

Good Standing & Probation

For a graduate student to remain in good standing, he or she must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher. Students whose GPA falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. If a GPA of 3.0 is not achieved at the end of the next two courses taken at SWU, the student will be academically suspended.

Any student in a master's program who receives grades lower than 2.7 for two courses (3.0 or lower in the M.Ed. Program) will meet with the assigned academic advisor and be placed on academic probation. If another course grade lower than 2.7 (3.0 in M.Ed.) is earned, the student will not be permitted to continue in the program. Appeals to action taken under this policy must be submitted to the graduate faculty for consideration.

A graduate student admitted conditionally based on an undergraduate GPA of less than 3.0 must achieve at least a 3.0 in each of his or her first two courses in order to continue in the program. If conditions are not met, administrative withdrawal from the program will occur.

Withdrawal from Courses

To accommodate legitimate personal or professional crises, a master's student may be allowed to withdraw from a course, with a grade of WG. The withdrawal must occur before the last meeting of the course. No student may earn more than two grades of WG.

Residency Requirement

A student must attend classes on the Central campus of Southern Wesleyan University or at another approved site and complete at least eighty percent of the required hours of the curriculum in residency with Southern Wesleyan University (note exception for students in the M. Ed. Program who transfer in courses in their area of certification). (See transfer policy, above.)

General Graduation Requirements

Complete the specified curriculum with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 (on all work attempted) within a five-year period from initial enrollment in the program.

- Complete each core course with a grade of 2.0 or higher.
- Meet all specific program requirements.
- Pay all tuition, fees, and other charges.

Study Groups

With the exception of the Master of Ministry program, during the first course in each sequence, students must form study groups of three to five members. Each student must be a member of a study group. Weekly attendance is required and will be monitored. Non-attendance at study group meetings will be handled the same as non-attendance for in-class instruction. Specifically, students' grades may be affected and/or students may be withdrawn from the class for absences as outlined by institutional attendance policy. The attendance and grading policy for the study group participation and the in-class participation parallel each other.

Southern Wesleyan University reserves the right to administratively reorganize study groups or request that study groups be restructured to comply with the university and government regulations.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The campus-based residential program offers a number of unique offerings in order to serve a wider range of students. These programs are generally not available to students pursuing degrees through the adult and graduate programs.

GATEWAY TO LEARNING

Southern Wesleyan University, as a community of scholars, opens its doors to students who may not be pursuing a degree at the time they are taking classes. Those students who choose not to work toward a degree at Southern Wesleyan may register for up to two courses per semester by completing the GATEWAY TO LEARNING application, which must be completed for each term in attendance. The student may earn a maximum of eighteen hours before being required to register as a regular student. This program is also available for students who desire to audit classes. The following describes the special categories of Gateway students.

1. High School Students

High school students enrolled in their senior year or (with special permission) their junior year may take one freshman-level course each term at Southern Wesleyan University. They must complete the GATEWAY TO LEARNING application, obtained through the Admissions Office, which includes permission of their guidance counselor or principal. Tuition for regular courses is $50.00 per semester hour. High school Gateway students will also be charged a $100.00 per semester technology fee.

2. Degreed Students

Students who have been awarded a baccalaureate degree by an accredited college or university and have been out of college for more than one year may enroll for courses at Southern Wesleyan University by completing the GATEWAY TO LEARNING application. Tuition for regular courses is 50% of the normal rate. For special arrangements (such as tutorial, directed study, summer school or private lessons), tuition will be at the normal rate. Degreed Gateway students will also be charged a $100.00 per semester technology fee.

3. Transient Students

Transient students will be accepted for this program with the written approval of the home institution. The regular tuition schedule applies. Unclassified Gateway students will also be charged a $100.00 per semester technology fee in addition to regular tuition costs.

4. Senior Citizens

Persons aged sixty or above may enroll in regular courses at Southern Wesleyan University at no cost as a GATEWAY TO LEARNING student on a space-available basis. If credit is desired, a $5.00 per hour recording fee will be charged. Specific course fees (for example, laboratory, private lessons) will be charged.

COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS

Clemson University

Students who have been accepted by Southern Wesleyan University may take courses at Clemson University to strengthen their major course of study or as elective courses. Students who wish to participate in this cooperative program must register for the course and pay tuition fees at Southern Wesleyan University. No fees are paid to Clemson University by the student. The following regulations apply:

1. Enrollment in courses in the cooperative program with Clemson University is separate and distinct from regular admission to Southern Wesleyan University.
2. The student must have never been denied regular undergraduate admission to Clemson University.
3. The courses must not be offered at Southern Wesleyan during the school session the student desires to register for the course.
4. Students (during their undergraduate program) cannot enroll for more than a cumulative maximum of 15 semester hours.
5. Permission to take course work through the CU-Southern Wesleyan University Cooperative Program will require prior satisfactory completion of at least twelve semester hours at Southern Wesleyan University and a GPA of 2.5 on all work attempted or permission of the coordinator of the cooperative program.
6. Copies of the Southern Wesleyan University transcript, Special Student Admission Form from Clemson University, and Request For Courses Form from Southern Wesleyan University are to be submitted to the coordinator of the cooperative program during the registration prior to the semester in which the course work is to be taken.
7. Students who drop a course for which they are registered in the cooperative program must complete drop forms at both institutions. If dropping a course causes a student to fall to zero hours at Clemson University, the student must also separately withdraw from that university.
8. Students participating in the cooperative program must abide by the regulations of both Southern Wesleyan University and Clemson University.
9. Arrangements for participation in the CU-Southern Wesleyan University Cooperative Program must be made with the coordinator of the program.
10. Participation in the program is available during May and summer sessions only if the student pays regular Southern Wesleyan University tuition and any charges exceeding that amount.

Army and Air Force ROTC

Students who are accepted by Southern Wesleyan University may register for either the Army or Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps at Clemson University. Four- and two-year programs are available. The four-year program consists of the General Military Course (GMC) for freshmen and sophomores, and the Professional Officer Course (POC) for juniors and seniors. Students may enter the POC as juniors under the two-year program by applying early in the fall of their sophomore year.

Students who complete the basic program may receive four semester credit hours of elective or physical education activity credit. Students selected for the advanced program will receive twelve semester hours of elective credit upon completion of the program.

Scholarships are available for students enrolled in ROTC. Air Force ROTC juniors and seniors who are not receiving scholarships may be eligible to receive $1500 incentive per semester for tuition and fees plus $225 per semester for books. Students attending Clemson or Southern Wesleyan may also receive three- and two-year scholarships. All scholarship cadets, juniors, and seniors receive an additional $200 per month to use as desired.

All classes are taught by Clemson University ROTC personnel. There is no tuition charge.

Cadets who complete ROTC and satisfy commissioning requirements are appointed as officers. Opportunities exist for graduate study once on active duty, with temporary deferments to active duty possible.

Specific information and requirements should be obtained from the cooperative program coordinator at 864-656-3254.

Criminal Justice (Police Science)

Students completing an associate's degree program in criminal justice at an accredited college or technical institution may transfer credit from that curriculum to Southern Wesleyan University, where they may then complete a bachelor's degree in psychology in two years. This option will result in earning a B.A. degree with a major in psychology and a minor in criminal justice. More information may be obtained from the Office of Admissions at Southern Wesleyan University.

Medical Technology

Students accepted by Southern Wesleyan University may receive specialized training in medical technology by spending their final year of college residence at an institution that offers the necessary courses in medical technology and is acceptable to Southern Wesleyan University. The university cannot guarantee acceptance at such an institution. A total of 33 or more semester credit hours will be recorded on a P or NC basis upon completion of the year of hospital residence. Students who desire specialized training in medical technology should complete all the general requirements for graduation during their residence at Southern Wesleyan University and have 95 semester hours of credit before entering a medical technology school.

A student must have a minimum cumulative 2.0 GPA and the approval of the chair of the Division of Science before application for hospital residence is submitted. Upon satisfactory completion of the prescribed program in medical technology, the student is awarded a B.S. in Medical Technology from Southern Wesleyan University and is eligible to take the examination for certification as a Medical Technologist.

Certified Medical Laboratory Technicians may work toward Medical Technology certification at Southern Wesleyan University in two ways. First, they may earn a B.A. in biology, and, with specified work experience, establish eligibility to take the certification exam. Second, they may establish such eligibility by earning a B.S. in medical technology. (See descriptions of these programs under Science Division for requirements.) In either case, at least 60 hours of post-junior college credit, including 32 hours in residence at Southern Wesleyan University, and all of the general graduation requirements must be earned.

Nursing

Southern Wesleyan University does not offer a nursing degree. It does offer the first two years of pre-nursing courses. Students may then transfer to a qualified nursing school, such as Clemson University, for their junior and senior years to complete their nursing degree. Southern Wesleyan University cannot guarantee acceptance into any nursing school.

OFF-CAMPUS PROGRAMS

Council for Christian Colleges and Universities

The Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU) is an international higher education association of intentionally Christian colleges and universities with 105 members in North America and 67 affiliate institutions in 24 countries. Its mission is to advance the cause of Christ-centered higher education and to help member institutions transform lives by faithfully relating scholarship and service to biblical truth.

A student may participate in off-campus programs other than those sponsored by Southern Wesleyan University or by CCCU. However, such programs must be evaluated by the provost before the student applies to the program.

The CCCU offers many off-campus semester and summer programs to students of its member institutions. The programs offer a unique opportunity for students go beyond the limits of the traditional college experience and to make the world their classroom.

Applying to CCCU Off-Campus Programs

For more information about these interdisciplinary learning opportunities students should visit the CCCU off-campus programs website at www.bestsemester.com. Students interested in participating in any CCCU off-campus program should contact Dr. Steve Hayduk, the SWU Coordinator of CCCU Cooperative Programs.

In general, the application deadline for spring 2005 programs is October 15, 2004 and the application deadline for fall 2005 programs is March 31, 2005. However, the application deadlines to the various CCCU programs can differ from site to site. Therefore, students should work closely with the SWU program coordinator to ensure that all CCCU deadlines are met.

Eligibility

As a general rule to be eligible for participation in the CCCU cooperative programs:

1. Applicants must be full-time students enrolled in the university's residential campus program.
2. Applicants must have at least sophomore standing and at least two semesters in attendance at SWU.
3. Applicants must enroll as a full-time student for at least one semester immediately following their participation in the CCCU program.
4. Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 2.50.
5. Applicants must be in good standing academically and socially.

Cost

Students participating in an off-campus CCCU program pay the regular full semester charges for tuition, room, and board to Southern Wesleyan University. The university then pays the CCCU program fees. Students are responsible for any CCCU program fees above those charged by Southern Wesleyan University. Airfare from a hub site in the U.S. to international programs is typically included in the fee. However, airfare to the U.S. hub site is typically not included.

Financial Aid

Any external sources of financial aid (for example: grants, scholarships, and loans) are applicable to the off-campus program. Institutional aid, however, is not automatically available. Generally, institutional aid is limited to two students per academic year, with preference given to students participating in a CCCU program.

To be granted permission to use institutional aid for a CCCU program students must adhere to the following procedure.

Permission to Use Institutional Aid

1. The student completes and returns the permission application to Dr. Steven Hayduk, SWU Coordinator of CCCU programs.
2. Dr. Hayduk presents the materials to the SWU selection committee. The selection committee will review the permission application and may request additional information and an interview with the applicant.
3. The selection committee will inform applicants of their status within 30 days following the meeting.

PI note that being selected to use institutional aid does not guarantee acceptance into a CCCU program. Application and acceptance to CCCU off-campus programs is a completely separate process and is done through the CCCU.

If a student is granted permission to use institutional aid and is not selected to a CCCU program, the permission may be granted to another applicant.

Deadline for Permission to Use Institutional Aid

The deadlines for asking for permission to use SWU institutional aid are:

- | | |
|------------|-----------------------------------|
| October 1: | For spring semester CCCU programs |
| March 15: | For fall semester CCCU programs |

Selection Criteria for Granting the Use of Institutional Aid:

The selection committee will consider the following criteria when considering granting permission to a student to use institutional aid.

1. Rationale: the relevance of the off-campus program to the student's academic major and/or plans for graduate school
2. The student's cumulative GPA
3. The student's plan for sharing the experience with the SWU community
4. Citizenship: The student's degree of campus involvement and judicial record

American Studies Program (ASP)

The American Studies Program uses Washington as a stimulating educational laboratory where collegians gain hands-on experience with an internship in their chosen field and explore pressing national and international issues in public policy seminars which are issue-oriented, interdisciplinary, and led by ASP faculty and Washington professionals. Internships are tailored to fit the student's talents and aspirations and are available in a wide range of fields. ASP bridges classroom and marketplace, combining biblical reflection, policy analysis, and real-world experience. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Australia Studies Centre at Wesley Institute

The ASC seeks to prepare students to live the Christian life in a world that is religiously and culturally pluralistic, whether that's in Australia, North America, or other parts of the world. Students are encouraged to think through their role as kingdom builders in a Western world that is increasingly secular both intellectually and culturally. Students are further challenged to grapple with the meaning of being salt and light in the culture-shaping arena of the professional performing artist.

China Studies Program (CSP)

The China Studies Program allows students to experience Chinese civilization firsthand. Students participate in seminar courses on the historical, cultural, religious, geographical and economic realities of this strategic and populous nation. In addition to the study of standard Chinese, students will be given such opportunities as assisting Chinese students learning English or working in an orphanage, allowing for one-on-one interaction. The program seeks to introduce students to the diversity of China, including Beijing, Shanghai, Xi'an. This interdisciplinary, cross-cultural program of study enables Christian students to deal with this increasingly important part of the world in an informed, Christ-centered way. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Contemporary Music Center

Students spend their semester gaining hands-on experience in recording, performing, producing, and marketing contemporary music. Students choose to study within either an artist track or an executive track. The artist track program includes song writing, studio recording and performance, and composing music in preparation for a concert tour. The focus of the executive track program is artist management; artists, repertoire, and music; marketing; and sales. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Latin American Studies Program (LASP)

The Latin American Studies Program (based in San Jose, Costa Rica) seeks to introduce students to as wide a range of Latin American experiences as possible through the study of the language, literature, culture, politics, history, economics, ecology, and religion of the region. Living with a Costa Rican family, students experience and become a part of the day-to-day lives of typical Latin Americans. Students also participate in a service opportunity and travel for three weeks to nearby Latin American nations. Students participate in one of four concentrations: Latin American Studies (offered both fall and spring terms); Advanced Language and Literature (limited to Spanish majors and offered both fall and spring terms); International Business and Management (offered only in the fall term); and Tropical Sciences (offered only in the spring term). Students in all concentrations earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Los Angeles Film Studies Center (LAFSC)

The Los Angeles Film Studies Center is designed to train students to serve in various aspects of the film industry with both professional skill and Christian integrity. Students live, learn, and work in the Los Angeles area near major studios. The curriculum consists of two required seminars focusing on the role of film in culture and the relationship of faith to work in this very important industry. In addition, students choose two elective courses from a variety of offerings in film studies. Internships in various segments of the film industry provide students with hands-on experience. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Middle East Studies Program (MESP)

The Middle East Studies Program, based in Cairo, Egypt, allows students to explore and interact with the complex and strategic world of the modern Middle East. The interdisciplinary seminars give students the opportunity to explore the diverse religious, social, cultural, and political traditions of Middle Eastern people. In addition to seminars, students study the Arabic language and work as volunteers with various organizations in Cairo. Through travel to Israel, Palestine, Jordan, Syria, and Turkey, students are exposed to the diversity and dynamism of the region. The MESP encourages and equips students to relate to the Muslim world in an informed, constructive, and Christ-centered manner at a time of tension and change. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Oxford Honors Program (OHP)

Honors and other highly qualified students of council member institutions have the opportunity to study in England through an interdisciplinary semester at Oxford University. The rigorous academic program, aimed at increasing critical thinking skills and scholarship from an integrated Christian perspective, allows participants to choose from a wide variety of tutorial study programs in numerous disciplines, including the arts, religion, history, literature, and philosophy. In addition to two Oxford tutorials, students participate in a seminar and an integrative course through which they produce a scholarly project or term paper. Field trips provide opportunities for experiential learning in England's rich historical setting. Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Oxford Summer School

The summer equivalent of the Oxford Honors Program allows students of council member institutions to spend a summer term studying at the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies (CMRS) of Keble College at Oxford University. The program includes multi-disciplinary study of the Renaissance and Reformation through examination of philosophy, art, literature, science, music, politics, and religion of early modern Europe in a choice of lectures, seminars, and field trips. Students earn 6-9 semester credits, which are administered directly to member institutions by CMRS.

Russian Studies Program (RSP)

Students in the Russian Studies Program are exposed to the depth and diversity of Russian culture during a semester spent in Russia's three largest cities: Moscow, St. Petersburg, and Nizhni Novgorod. Students complete three seminar courses: History and Sociology of Religion in Russia; Russian Peoples, Cultures and Literature; and Russia in Transition; they also receive instruction in the Russian language, choosing either four or six semester hours of language coursework. For those opting for four hours of Russian, a seminar course entitled International Relations and Business in Russia is available. Students begin with time in Moscow; then spend twelve weeks in Nizhni Novgorod, a strategic city on the Volga River. After six weeks of language instruction, students live with a Russian family for the remainder of their stay in this city. Students also participate in a service opportunity in Nizhni Novgorod. The program concludes with time in St. Petersburg, the Russian "window to the West." Students earn 16 semester hours of credit.

Summer Institute of Journalism (SIJ)

Council campuses are invited to choose two student journalists to apply for this four-week, all-expenses paid experience in Washington, DC. Fifteen students are selected to participate in the institute, which lasts from mid-May to mid-June. The institute blends classroom experience with hands-on work and is an excellent opportunity to learn through lectures and panels with leading journalists who share a strong Christian commitment. Participants also participate in seminars taught by communications professors from council member institutions, take part in field trips, and complete workshop projects for local newspapers. The course provides valuable insight and training in gathering and writing news, editing copy, and designing layout. Students earn four semester hours of credit.

Uganda Studies Program

The Uganda Studies Program (USP) seeks to prepare students to live the Christian life in a world that is religiously and culturally pluralistic, whether in Africa, North America, or other parts of the world. The USP seeks to introduce students to the dynamic world of the Global South, focused in the vibrant East African nation of Uganda. Christianity here is joyful and growing rapidly, even as it engages Islam and secularization. USP students will move through this society first in the classes and dormitories of Uganda Christian University and then as humble learners observing places and people of interest around the country.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Because the cost of operations in a university depends upon numerous variables beyond the institution's control, the following expenses are subject to revision at any time.

Adult & Graduate Studies

In all programs with a lock-step cohort sequence (i.e. all adult and graduate programs except the M.Min.), set tuition and fee rates are guaranteed for students who complete a core sequence according to the prescribed curriculum schedule. This policy applies to the student's core curriculum only. The charge for drop-in courses, or for other special courses, will be applied according to the current schedule. Each course must be paid for in advance, prior to attending the first workshop. A late charge will be added to any account that is overdue as stated in the original payment plan. Supplemental materials give details about financial policies.

Information concerning current tuition & fees for the undergraduate adult evening programs and graduate programs may be obtained by calling the appropriate admissions office.

PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS

Southern Wesleyan University makes every effort to work with students making payment for college. However, SWU is limited in the flexibility it can extend. Students need to be aware of the following policies.

- A service charge will be added to delinquent accounts.
- A student will be allowed to participate in graduation only if all financial obligations to the university have been met.
- No diplomas or transcripts will be released until all accounts with the university (including parking fines, library fines, and business office and bookstore bills) have been settled.

Residential Campus Payment Plans

The following describes acceptable payment plans for the residential campus programs. (MASTERCARD, DISCOVER, or VISA cards may be used for any or all payments.)

- (a) Payment in full at registration.
- (b) 50% at registration, 50% in six weeks ($20 service charge).
- (c) 25% at registration, balance in three equal monthly payments ($60 service charge).
- (d) Ten payment plan offered in fall only – consult Director of Student Accounts for details.
- (e) Traditional students may make secure payments online through My Campus. Please note that a student log-in is required. You may view the help tab on My Campus, <http://mycampus.swu.edu/ics>, for more information on how to make a payment online.

Traditional Student – Delinquency Policy

Traditional students must make student account payments in full, or must have approval by the Office of Student Accounts and participate in one of the university's payment plans. Either payment in full or the first payment of approved payment plans should be received by the Business Office on or before registration day of the current semester. Students who have not met their initial financial obligation will be considered delinquent ten days after the current semester's registration day. In addition, any student with an outstanding balance at the end of the current semester will be considered in default.

Adult & Graduate Studies Payment Plans

A variety of payment options is available to adult undergraduate and graduate students. At the time of enrollment, the student will be asked to select a payment plan. Thereafter, the student will be responsible for following the schedule of payments.

Adult & Graduate Studies (AGS) Program – Delinquency Policy

All AGS tuition is due three weeks prior to class start dates, and any outstanding student account balances are considered delinquent thirty days after the due date. Outstanding balances of AGS students receiving financial aid and/or that participate in third-party billing will be considered delinquent sixty days past the due date. Outstanding balances of AGS students participating in Deferred Billing are considered in default three days after a delinquency occurs. Any AGS Accounting Office approved payment plan will be considered in default immediately if a payment is not received by its due date.

Refund Policies

Residential Campus Program

Southern Wesleyan University considers the acceptance of a registration slip as a contract binding the student for charges for the entire semester.

However, when withdrawal from school or a class becomes necessary, reduction in charges (tuition-only) will be made according to the following scale:

- During 1st week of the semester: 100%
- 2nd week of the semester: 75%
- 3rd week of the semester: 50%

4th week of the semester: 25%

After the fourth week there will be no reduction in tuition charges.

There will be no refund of fees.

Board will be adjusted on a weekly basis, any part of a week counting as a whole week.

Room will be adjusted by the month, any part of a month counting as a whole month (4 weeks equal 1 month). No refunds will be made on rooms after 8 weeks (2 months).

No refund will be issued to students compelled to leave school for disciplinary reasons.

One day of summer session is computed as equal to one week of regular session. Summer school refunds are at the rate of 25% per day.

No refund will be made for private music lessons missed unless the student has made proper arrangements ahead of time.

Withdrawal forms must be obtained from the Counseling Center and returned there when all required signatures are collected. No financial adjustments will be made if the student fails to withdraw properly, and a grade of 0 will be assigned for each course not successfully completed.

Students who receive Title IV financial assistance are subject to refund policies for their financial aid that are different from the one described above. When a student withdraws, a refund calculation which determines the amount of Title IV aid earned will be used to determine the amount of funds that must be returned to the sources.

Refunds calculated are returned to sources in the following order:

1. Loan proceeds
2. Grant proceeds
3. Other federal, state, private, or institutional sources of aid.

Students receiving financial assistance may be required to repay an appropriate amount of the assistance advanced for the semester of withdrawal.

Refund schedules and examples for all Title IV programs are available from the Office of Financial Aid.

Adult and Graduate Studies

The following refund policies pertain to all graduate and adult evening programs.

1. Application fees are not refundable.
2. The Education Resource Fee is partially refundable for materials not yet used. Refunds will not be made for books that have been marred in any way or from which shrink-wrap has been removed. Generally, refunds will not be made for books required in any class that the student has attended one or more times.
3. A refund of 90% of the Educational Resource Fee will be made for withdrawal for the following reasons: work transfer, military obligations, death in the immediate family, and serious personal or family illness.
4. If written notification of withdrawal is received prior to the first workshop of a course, the student is eligible for a full tuition refund for that course. If notification is received after the first workshop but before the second workshop, 90% of the tuition will be refunded (whether or not the student ever attended).

5. No refund will be given after the second workshop except on appeal. Appeals may be granted only in rare situations involving death in the immediate family, work transfer, military obligations, or serious personal or family illness.

FINANCIAL AID

GENERAL INFORMATION

Southern Wesleyan University offers financial aid to assist students in their quest for a college education. Each student is given personal consideration, and every attempt is made to fit the financial aid package to the student's need.

There are two types of financial aid: institutional aid and government aid. In most cases, a student is eligible for institutional financial aid only if he/she is enrolled for at least 12 semester hours of credit. Under certain conditions, a part-time student in the last semester of attendance before graduation may be eligible for prorated institutional financial aid. Details are available in the Office of Financial Aid. Also, certain kinds of federal aid are available to those who are registered as a part time student.

Institutional aid is limited to a maximum of 128 hours of undergraduate, graduation-credit work attempted. Developmental courses give institutional (non-graduation) credit only and may be covered on a one-time basis, as well.

In government-funded student aid programs, adjustments will be made to comply with any new regulations.

At the time of registration, an accepted applicant not having a Financial Aid award is required to pay twenty-five percent of university charges for the enrolling semester.

To apply for financial aid, a student must complete the following as soon after January 1 as possible:

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

After receiving notice of an award, the student should contact the Southern Wesleyan University Office of Financial Aid. If more assistance is needed, other possibilities may be available.

INSTITUTIONAL FINANCIAL AID

Institutional financial aid is given by the university as an investment in the education and lives of qualified students in the residential campus program. These scholarships, service awards, and grants are limited to full-time students and are generally limited to 128 of undergraduate credit hours at Southern Wesleyan University. However, any full-time student whose program requirements for the completion of one degree (not the addition of a major, other certifications, or an additional degree) cannot be completed in four years may apply for additional institutional aid. Applications for such an exception must be made to the director of financial aid, who will gather information and present it to the Enrollment Management Committee for approval.

A part-time student in the last semester of study before graduation may be eligible for some financial aid. Details are available in the Southern Wesleyan University Office of Financial Aid.

Institutional aid can be used only for direct, on-campus expenses, which include tuition, room and board, academic fees, and activity fees.

The following process is used:

- First, all federal grants and scholarships, state grants & scholarships, outside scholarships, and church scholarships are packaged.
- If this package does not meet direct, on-campus expenses, institutional aid will be applied in the following order: Southern Wesleyan University Scholarship or Grant and Athletic Grants

In no case will the total financial aid package exceed direct on-campus expenses.

LIFE Scholarship

The Legislative Incentive for Future Excellence (LIFE) Scholarship is a merit-based scholarship available only to a student who is a resident of South Carolina at the time of high school graduation and at the time of college enrollment. Students must meet two of these criteria: score 1100 on SAT (24 on ACT), have a GPA of at least 3.0, or ranking in upper 30% of graduating class. Eligible students attending a private institution will receive up to $4,700 plus a $300 book allowance.

Palmetto Fellows Scholarship Program

Open only to graduates of a South Carolina high school, this state-funded scholarship is available up to $6,700 during the first year. The amount increases to $7500 for the second year through the fourth year and is maintainable with satisfactory academic progress. Recipients are chosen by the state. Application details are available from high school guidance counselors.

HOPE Scholarship

The South Carolina HOPE Scholarship Program is a merit-based scholarship created for eligible students attending a four-year institution who do not qualify for the LIFE or Palmetto Fellows Scholarship. The HOPE scholarship is available only to a student who is a South Carolina resident at the time of high school graduation and at the time of enrollment. Eligible students attending a private institution will receive up to $2,800 (including a $300 book allowance) during the first year of attendance only. To qualify for the SC HOPE Scholarship, first-time entering freshmen must have a high school cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher.

Church Scholarship

Churches and districts can contribute toward assisting students with their college investment by submitting funds that can be applied to the student's financial aid package.

Churches and districts are encouraged to continue to meet their EIF allocations in addition to any church matching and not substitute this program for the vital EIF allocation, which helps to support Christian higher education.

Campus Challenge (TNT) and WBB

Winners at the area and national levels of Campus Challenge (TNT) and WBB competition will be awarded scholarships equal to the amount won during their competition careers, not to exceed direct university costs. Students must submit all original scholarship certificates prior to enrollment at Southern Wesleyan University. The total certificate amount will be divided by eight for incoming freshmen students and applied proportionately to each academic semester of attendance. The total certificate amount for transfer students will be divided by the number of semesters required to graduate and applied proportionately to each academic semester attendance.

Athletic Grants-in-Aid

Male or female students with outstanding athletic ability may be eligible for athletic grants-in-aid based on their participation in intercollegiate competition. The director of athletics supervises the awarding of athletic grants. Recipients are expected to apply for all federal aid for which they might be eligible.

Student athletes sign a contract that stipulates conditions of acceptance of athletic grants-in-aid. Violation of the contract may result in the inability to participate and possible loss of institutional financial aid.

A student athlete who has probationary offenses may have grant-in-aid money reinstated at the beginning of the following semester at an amount no higher than when the suspension occurred provided that the student bears the expenses for one semester at the university and meets all stipulations of the probationary period within the scheduled time frame. The reinstatement of the grant-in-aid money is at the discretion of the particular sport coach, the athletic director, and the appropriate vice president.

This policy pertains only to academic and social probation after enrolling at Southern Wesleyan University.

Baccalaureate Degree Grant

Graduates of accredited four-year institutions may receive a 50% discount on regular course tuition. Students are eligible only if a minimum of one year has elapsed from time of graduation to application for the post-baccalaureate degree tuition grant. Special arrangement courses (tutorial, directed study, independent study, major honors, co-op courses, and private lessons) will be at regular tuition rates. No other institutional aid is available to students with baccalaureate degrees. However, in certain cases, loans may be available. Information is available from the Office of Financial Aid.

FEDERAL AND STATE FINANCIAL AID

Southern Wesleyan University participates in all federally-assisted programs for which its students establish eligibility by completing the Free Application Federal Student Aid Form. Details are available from the Office of Financial Aid. Please note that federal programs are subject to change. These programs are only for citizens or permanent residents of the United States; but they are available for both the traditional and adult and graduate studies programs. Students enrolled in the Adult and Graduate Studies program will be considered to be enrolled full time while taking coursework. An academic year is defined as completing 24 credit hours and 45 weeks of instruction. This enrollment status is for use in all Title IV and South Carolina Aid programs.

To be eligible for federal and state financial aid, a student must meet the following minimum guidelines:

- Be eligible to enroll under the university's academic policies.
- Attain a cumulative grade point of 1.8 by the end of the freshman year and maintain a 2.0 average thereafter. In determining eligibility, the cumulative grade point average will be calculated on all work attempted.
- Complete 75% of the total credit hours attempted. For each term, the number of hours attempted is based on the total cumulative credit hours for which the student was enrolled at the end of the drop period. The number of hours earned is the cumulative total of these hours for which the student received a passing grade, as noted on the academic transcript.
- Complete the program of study in a timeframe not to exceed 150 percent of the published length of the program (measured in credit hours). For example, if the academic program length requires 128 hours, the maximum timeframe cannot exceed 192 credit hours attempted.

Information about the probationary period and the appeal process is available from the Office of Financial Aid.

Institutional Verification Policy and Procedures

Applicants for financial aid must complete verification requirements as outlined in their financial aid packet. The packet explains the verification process and how to complete the form enclosed for this purpose. Only those students who have been identified by the federal government through its audit checks of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid will be required to complete the verification process.

Applicants are given a 30-day time period to complete verification as outlined in the packet. At the end of the 30-day period, a letter is sent asking for immediate response in order to extend the time period. Extensions will be granted as requested in accordance with the situation.

If no response is received in one week, the file is considered inactive, and no Title IV funds will be awarded to the student until verification requirements are satisfied.

South Carolina Tuition Grant

South Carolina residents who attend Southern Wesleyan University may be eligible up to $3,200 per year in tuition aid. The specific amount of aid is determined by the state each year. Southern Wesleyan University students who have been legal residents of South Carolina for at least one year must submit the Free Application for FSA so that it may be electronically submitted and received by the state by June 30 to determine eligibility. Incoming freshmen must have an SAT score of 900 or higher or be in the upper 75% of graduating class. Returning students must file the FAFSA and make satisfactory academic progress in order to qualify for continuing grants.

Federal Pell Grants

The Federal Government provides individual grants of up to $4,310 per year, based on family need, for educational expenses. Application forms (the Free Application for Federal Student Aid) may be obtained through high school guidance counselors or university aid officers. Southern Wesleyan University requires that all applicants for financial aid apply for all federal financial aid for which they might be eligible. For additional information, go to: <http://studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALS WebApp/Students/english/PellGrants.jsp>.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG)

The university administers this federally-funded program of financial assistance to needy students. The director of financial aid maintains responsibility to administer the application of Federal SEOG funds, under guidelines approved by the Enrollment Management Committee. For additional information, go to: <http://studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALS WebApp/Students/english/FSEOG.jsp>.

Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG)

This federally funded grant will provide up to $750 for the first year undergraduate study and up to $1,300 for the second year of undergraduate study to full-time students who are a U.S. citizen, are receiving the Federal Pell Grant and who have successfully completed a rigorous high school program. Second year students must maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least a 3.0. (Additional eligibility requirements are necessary.) For additional information, go to:

The National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent Grant (National SMART Grant)

This federally funded grant will provide up to $4,000 for each of the third and fourth years of undergraduate study to full-time students who are a U.S. citizen, are receiving the Federal Pell Grant and who are majoring in physical, life, or computer sciences, mathematics, technology, or engineering or in a foreign language determined critical to national security. Students must maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least a 3.0 in coursework required to the major. (Additional eligibility requirements are necessary.) For additional information, go to:

Federal Stafford Loans

Students enrolled in the university may borrow up to $3,500 per year ($4500 for sophomore year and $5500 for junior and senior years) at 6.8% fixed interest with repayment to commence six months after termination of enrollment. Additional information may be obtained from the Office of Financial Aid.

Federal Perkins Loans (NDSL)

Up to $20,000 ($4000 per year) may be borrowed by eligible students through the university. The repayment of the principal plus 5% interest begins nine months after termination of enrollment and may be spread over 10 years at a minimum of $40 per month. Funds are awarded based on availability, time of applications, and financial need.

Work-Study Programs

Federal Work-Study (FWS) and regular work programs are designed to provide work for students with financial need. A variety of other on-campus employment (non Federal) is available with minimum wage as the base rate.

ROTC (Army and Air Force) Grants

Students enrolled in the Clemson University ROTC program are eligible to apply for 1-4 year grants, covering full tuition, fees, books, and a subsistence allowance of $200 per month. Additional information may be obtained from the high school guidance counselor or from the Southern Wesleyan University cooperative program coordinator.

Veterans' Benefits

Certain armed forces veterans and dependents, who qualify under Federal laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, are eligible to receive educational benefits. Information about these programs is available through state or county V.A. offices, or from the Office of Academic Records.

Special Programs

Students eligible for assistance under Vocational Rehabilitation programs should check with the Office of Financial Aid for details

RESIDENTIAL CAMPUS STUDENT LIFE INFORMATION

All student organizations and extracurricular activities are considered integral parts of the total educational program for which Southern Wesleyan strives. These activities encourage faculty involvement with students and are under the supervision and direction of the Office of Student Life. Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with the opportunities of extracurricular activities and to take advantage of these activities.

CAMPUS LIFE AND CONDUCT

Basic Principles

Southern Wesleyan University provides an intentional education that is more than intellectual. Students are offered a Christian perspective of life in a community of believers where emphasis on common life together in classrooms, residence halls, dining hall, and chapel is deliberate. This community life grows out of scripture, Wesleyan tradition, and the best of Western classical education.

The philosophy of our life together is that all actions and behavior should be compatible with the spiritual enrichment of the individual and the community. While it is impossible to create community regulations acceptable to everyone, the purpose of the established and expected responsibilities of community members is encouraging a life of consideration for others and respect for oneself as a creation of God.

Each person who joins the academic community is expected to accept the responsibilities of following the established policies and procedures of the university and to respect properly constituted university authority. This expectation, the university believes, fosters both individual and community development.

Spiritual Life

Southern Wesleyan is a Christian liberal arts college and happily exists as an educational arm of The Wesleyan Church. All students, both resident and commuter, are expected to honor this rich heritage.

Students are required to be present at regularly scheduled chapel exercises. Students are also expected to attend faithfully the Sunday and other regularly scheduled services at the church of their choice.

Attendance at Spiritual Emphasis services is expected of all students. All students are encouraged to attend the annual missions festival and other chapel events.

Campus Security

The Southern Wesleyan University campus takes pride in its safety record. The Campus Resource Office is responsible for overall campus security. A copy of the most recent campus crime report is available in the Office of Student Life, the Safety and Security Office, or on our website under "Welcome Center."

REGULATIONS

Housing Policy

All single students enrolled for twelve credit hours or more and who are under the age of twenty-three on the first day of registration for any semester are required to live in university student housing and shall participate in the university board plan for the duration of that semester. Students who are married or living at home with their parent(s) or responsible family member may live off campus. Students under the age of twenty-three who have completed eight full-time post-high school college semesters of attendance, not including May and summer terms, are eligible to live off campus. Single students over twenty-five years of age or under eighteen years of age must receive permission from the Office of Student Life to reside in University housing.

All students must submit a correct address and phone number for their residence during the semester. Changes that occur are to be reported immediately to either the Office of Academic Records or the Office of Student Life.

Students in violation of University residence policy are subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal. All students who live off campus are expected to follow the standards and regulations expressed in the Student Handbook.

Maximum institutional financial aid will be applied only to the actual costs for direct University tuition, room, and board charges and will not be applied to off-campus expenses. Exceptions to university housing policy will be considered only for extreme circumstances and must be requested in writing to the Housing Office in advance.

Rooms

Students living in campus housing are expected to keep their rooms and other public areas neat and clean. They should take pride in their room and the facilities and consider the residential experience a vital part of their education.

No student will be authorized to move into a room without having paid a $200.00 room security deposit.

Dormitory rooms are furnished with bed, mattress, dresser, desk, and chairs. Other items such as pillows, bedding, curtains, rugs, toilet articles, pictures, iron, and ironing board (if desired) are to be furnished by the student. No changes or repairs to lighting or plumbing are permitted.

Residence hall occupants will be responsible for disorder in or damage to rooms and public areas.

Board

All resident students are required to board at the university cafeteria. Meal plans are not transferable. Meal tickets are available to commuting students from the food service at a rate less than ala carte. Commuting students are encouraged to take meals in the cafeteria as their schedule permits.

No food or cafeteria items are to be taken from the cafeteria without permission of the cafeteria supervisor.

During scheduled vacations or recess periods, no food service is available on campus.

Motor Vehicle Policy

All persons having motor vehicles on campus must register these vehicles with the Safety and Security Office at the beginning of the year or immediately upon obtaining a new or different vehicle. Each vehicle so registered will be given a parking permit for the campus. Regular or consistent abuses of campus parking regulations may result in revocation of parking privileges.

Failure to have the parking permit displayed in the designated location will result in a fine. Violations of campus motor vehicle regulations relative to use and parking will be subject to fines. Habitual or serious violations may result in the loss of motor vehicle permit and removal of the privilege of having a motor vehicle on campus. See the Student Handbook for further information.

Student Discipline

Discipline procedures are printed each year in the Southern Wesleyan Student Handbook. Students placed on social probation are not allowed to represent the university.

Representation of the university is a responsibility and a privilege; therefore, such representation is generally carried out only by students in good standing. Students on social probation should not be involved in the following:

- membership in the homecoming court
- holding office in university organizations
- having a continuing role in leading chapel phonathon

- ministry teams

- inter-varsity athletics, including travel with the team in a support role, and cheerleading

(Students on probation may practice on campus.)

- *senior practicum, including directed teaching

- *Christian Service Organizations (CSO) teams

- *traveling ensembles

- *major dramatic productions

Private Withdrawal

In light of the basic principles of the university, any student whose conduct is considered detrimental to the best interests of the university, whose overall influence is negative to campus morale, whose attitude is persistently antagonistic toward others, whose academic performance is regularly delinquent, or whose stay in college seems to be of small personal benefit or inimical to others, may be informed privately that further stay at Southern Wesleyan is not desired. Such a student will be notified, given the opportunity to be heard, and allowed to withdraw privately or may be dismissed without formal charges.

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Dr. Walt Sinnamon, Dean

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN GENERAL STUDIES

The Southern Wesleyan University Adult and Graduate Studies (AGS) program provides a structured Associate of Arts in General Studies degree program for students with no previous college credits or for students who do not have sufficient college credits to be admitted to a bachelor's degree-completion core program. Southern Wesleyan University provides this high quality undergraduate program guided by a Christian worldview and designed for adult learners. The program allows a working adult to advance his or her professional and personal educational goals while maintaining a career. Students may earn an Associate of Arts in General Studies degree by completing a total of 64 semester hours listed below. Completion of this degree would also provide the courses necessary to move into the Bachelor of Science in Education (BSE) or Bachelor of Science in Human Services (BSHS) programs at Southern Wesleyan University.

The following courses are offered in the Associate of Arts in General Studies

SEMR 2013	College and Working Adults

Jane P. Dill, Chair

The Division of Fine Arts offers a B.A. degree with a major in music, a concentration in music education, and an emphasis in church music. Courses are also offered in aesthetics and art.

MUSIC

Mission

Within the context of the mission of Southern Wesleyan University, the mission of the music department is to provide a quality music curriculum within a Christian environment. To accomplish this mission, each program within the department will: (1) equip the student with skills necessary to excel in a variety of musical settings; (2) integrate various aspects of the Christian faith into each course, attempting to instill within the student an awareness of the practical outworking of Biblical principles

General Requirements for Music Majors

Students planning to enter the four-year program of study in music should be prepared to audition. They should evidence skill in sight-reading, tone and pitch production, proper phrasing, and general musicianship on their major instrument. Students who do not meet minimal requirements in these areas will be asked to acquire further skills before registering for the freshman level of applied music.

All music majors are required to study an applied major and an applied minor instrument. At the end of each semester, they will be examined by the music faculty through jury performance in both areas of applied study.

Levels of performance will be assigned by the music faculty, and students will be permitted to advance to the next level upon the successful completion of studio lessons and semester juries.

Senior Recital

All majors must complete the highest level in their applied major instrument and present a thirty-minute recital during the senior year before graduation. A preliminary recital hearing before the music faculty is required of all students. Further information regarding recital criteria is available in the Music Department Handbook.

Ensemble Requirement

Every music major is required to participate in an ensemble for each semester of enrollment. The music faculty will designate which large and small ensembles fulfill the ensemble-participation requirement. To be certified in music education, music majors must have at least two semesters of a vocal ensemble.

Piano Proficiency

All music majors must pass a piano proficiency exam in order to graduate. Students are required to be registered for piano study each semester until reaching proficiency.

Recital Hour and Diction Lab

Each music major and minor is required to attend and participate in the department recital hour concurrently with each semester of private voice/instrument instruction.

Every voice major is required to enroll in four semesters of diction lab corresponding to each of the four different foreign languages under study.

The B.A. in Music, a general degree, provides the student with a foundation in musical studies while giving elective opportunity for study in a secondary area which often integrates with music, e.g. business or computers. Although an applied performance degree is not offered at Southern Wesleyan University, some B.A. in Music majors concentrate in performance by taking additional hours in applied areas of study, particularly in their freshmen and sophomore years.

DIVISION OF RELIGION

Christina Accornero, Chair

The Division of Religion offers a major in religion with concentrations in Bible, Children's Ministry, Christian ministry, New Testament Greek, Sports Ministry, and Youth Ministry. The Religion Division urges students preparing for ordained ministry to complete one of the following five programs: Bible, Christian Education, Missions, Pastoral Ministry, or Youth Ministry. A program consists of the concentration in Christian ministry and the appropriate minor or cognate.

See p. 56 for description of the Master of Ministry offered in the Adult and Graduate Studies format.

ORDINATION

For those preparing for ordination in The Wesleyan Church should complete one of the following five programs: Bible, Christian Education, Missions, Pastoral Ministry, or Youth Ministry. The combination of the Christian ministry concentration and any of the minors or the cognate will meet academic requirements for ordination in The Wesleyan Church.

MASTER OF MINISTRY

Program Goals

Upon successful completion of the Master of Ministry degree program, the graduate should be able to

- Apply the foundational truths of biblical and theological study to functional demands of the Christian ministry.
- Demonstrate the skills to communicate the Gospel effectively using a variety of communication techniques.
- Provide leadership for ministry in a Christian congregation, parachurch agency, community, or constituency through sound principles of management and administration.
- Offer Christian care in a variety of settings.
- Correlate the multiple responsibilities of an ordained or lay minister within the framework of a comprehensive theology of ministry.
- Minister effectively in a variety of vocational positions in the church or a parachurch agency.

DIVISION OF SCIENCE

Walt Sinnamon, Chair

The Division of Science offers the B.A. degree with majors in biology, chemistry, and mathematics; and the B.S. degree with majors in applied computer science, biology, chemistry, forensic computer science, forensic science, medical technology, mathematics, pre-medicine, and pre-dentistry. Additional courses are offered in physics and physical science. Students who make proper arrangements may take specialized courses at Clemson University through the cooperative program. The chair of the division and the health professions advisor are available to assist students wishing to prepare for graduate or professional school, such as medical school, graduate study in a science field, physical therapy, or health information administration, or who wish to transfer to a specialized program such as nursing, veterinary medicine, podiatry, or cytotechnology.

All majors in the division are required to take a comprehensive oral examination during their senior year.

All majors in biology, chemistry, mathematics, pre-medicine, or pre-dentistry are required to take the Major Field Test in the major area (pre-dentistry and pre-medicine majors may choose either the biology or chemistry test) as seniors and have the scores sent to the chair of the division. First-semester students who have identified themselves as such a major, and who are taking a course toward that major, will also be required to take this test.

All Sophomore Applied Computer Science majors, including transfer students, are required to take and pass an entrance exam, based on the 100 and 200 level computer science courses, before they may be admitted to 300 and 400 level computer science courses. A grade of 2.5 or better on a 100 and 200 level computer courses at Southern Wesleyan University or equivalent college transfer courses from any regionally accredited institution will exempt the student from the portion of the exam drawn from that course. Successfully passing the sophomore exam by scoring at least a 2.0 on each portion of the exam allows a student to move on to 300 and 400 level computer science courses. Individual portions of the exam may be retaken one time or the courses represented by those portions of the exam may be retaken.

We recommend that students gain practical work experience related to the proposed field of study. The students should inform the health professions advisor as to the school(s) they hope to enter, and check that school's publications for other requirements. Medical and dental schools do not specify an undergraduate major. They require admission tests, and usually have specific course requirements, but no sequence of courses will guarantee acceptance. Southern Wesleyan University graduates majoring in biology, chemistry, history, and psychology have been accepted to medical or dental schools.

A year of physics and a course in management selected from MGMT 3313 or MGMT 3323 are recommended.

One year or more of medical technology instruction at an approved institution, taking the courses specified by that institution to qualify the student for national certification, and furnishing SWU with satisfactory evidence that grades of C or better in all such courses were earned, is required. The university cannot guarantee acceptance at such an institution.

For those who have been certified as Medical Laboratory Technicians (MLT), the requirements, including successful completion of a year of medical technology instruction at an approved institution, are the same, except that a three-hour advanced biology course is required rather than BIOL 3033, 3104, and 3204, 3214; CHEM 1004 and 1054 are not required; one hour of capstone biology or chemistry seminar is required. Students with MLT certification pursuing the Medical Technology degree should note that there is a time limit on acceptance of certain courses toward qualifying to stand the Medical Technology certifying examination.

DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Dr. Jeffrey Moore, Dean

The vision statement:

The vision of Southern Wesleyan University School of Business is to provide the Southeast's premier undergraduate and graduate business programs based on Biblical principles and experiential learning.

The mission statement:

The mission of the Southern Wesleyan University School of Business is to glorify God through its graduates. Our graduates will add value to their employers by possessing the technical, managerial, and leadership skills required to succeed in a multi-cultural environment.

Core Values:

- BIBLICAL Train students to be persons of integrity based on Biblical truth that will transform personal and professional life.
- PRACTICAL Develop business skills and join in adding value through real world business experiences that are framed in an academic program.
- INNOVATIVE Learn to be creative in a world where entrepreneurship, technology, globalization and change is an increasing reality.

Degrees offered:

Southern Wesleyan University School of Business offers three levels of business degrees serving two different types of student populations. We offer an associate's degree of science in business (Adult & Graduate Studies), bachelor's of arts in business administration (traditional), a bachelor's of science in accounting (traditional), a double major bachelor's of science in accounting and business administration (traditional), a bachelor's of science in business administration (traditional and Adult & Graduate Studies), a master's in business administration MBA (Adult & Graduate Studies), and a master's in science of management MSM (Adult & Graduate Studies).

Southern Wesleyan University School of Business partners with the College of Arts and Sciences in two bachelor's degrees serving traditional students. Two bachelor's of science, one in Management of Information Technology MOIT, and the other in Recreation & Leisure Services Administration.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Dr. G. Fred Woodworth, Dean

Vision of the School of Education

In keeping with the vision of Southern Wesleyan University, the School of Education seeks to produce educators who have instilled principles related to faith, living, learning, and professionalism in order to significantly and positively affect student achievement.

Mission of the School of Education

The mission of the School of Education is to prepare men and women to become Christian educators by fostering scholarship and a Christian ethic of care in the image and nature of Jesus so as to produce teachers who are leaders and world changers within the education profession.

The mission statement of Southern Wesleyan University refers to preparing students “by educating them with excellence, by equipping them for service, by fostering spiritual growth and maturity, and by mobilizing them as leaders and world changers.” In accord with the mission statements and its basic tenets, the School of Education has adopted as the theme statement, “Educators who demonstrate scholarship within a Christian ethic of care.”

Accordingly, courses in the School of Education seek to integrate the following dispositions:

- The teacher candidate demonstrates an ethic of care towards self by exhibiting a biblical approach to life that is demonstrated by a passion for learning.
- The teacher candidate demonstrates an ethic of care towards learners by displaying an enthusiasm about teaching as demonstrated by compassionate and respectful interactions with learners.
- The teacher candidate demonstrates an ethic of care towards colleagues by engaging in collaborative work practices as demonstrated by compassionate and respectful interactions with colleagues.
- The teacher candidate demonstrates an ethic of care towards the community by recognizing the community as an integral part of the learning process as demonstrated by valuing its pluralist nature.

Purpose of the Teacher Education Program

In keeping with the ultimate mission of the University to integrate faith, learning, and living, the School of Education, along with other Divisions of the College of Arts and Sciences offering teacher certification, seeks to instill principles related to faith, living, learning, and professionalism within those pursuing an education degree with the intention of obtaining teacher certification and becoming a classroom instructor who impacts the learning of PK-12 learners.

Goals of the Teacher Education Program

The goals of the School of Education are based on the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC) Principles:

Principle 1: The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and the structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and can create learning experiences that make these aspects of subject matter meaningful for students.

Principle 2: The teacher understands how children learn and develop, and can provide learning opportunities that support their intellectual, social, and personal development.

Principle 3: The teacher understands how students differ in their approaches to learning and creates instructional opportunities that are adapted to diverse learners.

Principle 4: The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage students' development of critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills.

Principle 5: The teacher uses an understanding of individual and group motivation and behavior to create a learning environment that encourages positive social interaction, active engagement in learning and self-motivation.

Principle 6: The teacher uses knowledge of effective verbal, nonverbal, and media communication techniques to foster active inquiry, collaboration and supportive interaction in the classroom.

- Principle 7: The teacher plans instruction based upon knowledge of subject matter, the community, and curriculum goals.
- Principle 8: The teacher understands and uses formal and informal assessment strategies to evaluate and ensure the continuous intellectual, social, and physical development of the learner.
- Principle 9: The teacher is a reflective practitioner who continually evaluates the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (students, parents, and other professionals in the learning community) and who actively seeks out opportunities to grow professionally.
- Principle 10: The teacher fosters relationships with school colleagues, parents, and agencies in the larger community to support students' learning and well-being.
- Principle 11: The teacher demonstrates dispositions that promote scholarship within a Christian ethic of care. (Southern Wesleyan University)

All teacher candidates should see the School of Education Teacher Candidate Handbook for specific goals and objectives for individual education programs.

Undergraduate Major Degree Programs

The School of Education offers curriculum sequences in early childhood education, elementary education, early childhood/elementary education, and special education that lead to a Bachelor of Science degree and teacher certification through the South Carolina State Department of Education. The Special Education program prepares the undergraduate for PK-12 multi-categorical (mild to moderate disabilities) certification in the areas of emotional disabilities/ behavioral disorders, learning disabilities, and mental disabilities. In collaboration with Divisions of the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Education also offers the teacher candidate the option of completing a prescribed sequence of professional education courses that lead to a bachelor's degree and teaching certification in the content areas of biology, English, mathematics, physical education, and music.

All programs include a general education strand, an appropriate content area strand, and a professional education strand specific to the major. The syllabi of courses required for the preparation of educational personnel in each professional education program reflect knowledge bases, current research, effective practice, and school effectiveness. Further, the course content has been aligned to the principles of the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (INTASC), the respective Specialized Professional Association (SPA) standards, the South Carolina state curriculum standards, the ADEPT assessment instrument, and the Southern Wesleyan University School of Education dispositions.

Program	Certification Grade Levels
Early Childhood Education	K-3
Elementary Education	2-6
Early Childhood/Elementary Combination	K-6
Biology Education	9-12
English Education	9-12
Mathematics Education	9-12
Music Education	9-12
Physical Education	PK-12
Special Education	PK-12

The teacher candidate must complete 30 hours of professional education courses and 29 hours of courses in each major to fulfill the certification standards mandated by the South Carolina Department of Education. The teacher candidate should refer to the School of Education Student Handbook for detailed information regarding the requirements for the teacher education program. Additional information concerning music education program requirements can be found in the Southern Wesleyan University Music Department Handbook.

Education Program General Requirements

The teacher candidate should discuss the educational goals and program requirements with education faculty and the major advisor near the beginning of the college career. Graduation with a degree that includes required education courses does not guarantee state certification. Candidates must meet all state requirements for certification in order to be recommended for a certificate. The South Carolina State Department of Education may change its requirements for teacher certification while a teacher candidate is completing the undergraduate education major program. Therefore, the teacher candidate's program may be affected by any of these revisions which are not considered in this catalog or the School of Education Student Handbook. The requirements for the education major programs and teacher certification specified in Southern Wesleyan University documents reflect current South Carolina State Department of Education guidelines. Therefore, the teacher candidate should remain informed through participation in education meetings, education classes, and advising sessions.

Praxis I: Academic Skills Assessments

In order to be accepted into a Teacher Education program, the teacher candidate is required by the South Carolina State Department of Education to pass Praxis I: Academic Skills Assessments, which measures reading, writing, and mathematics skills. The teacher candidate who has achieved a minimum SAT score of 1100 for the old SAT (Verbal and Math); 1650 for the new SAT (Verbal, Math, Writing) or a composite ACT score of 24 may waive these assessments. The teacher candidate should see the respective education advisor for additional information. The teacher candidate should pass all three tests by the first semester of the sophomore year when the application for admission to Lock I is submitted in order to be on schedule for program completion.

Responsibility of the Teacher Candidate

Southern Wesleyan University places the responsibility of fulfilling all requirements for graduation with the teacher candidate. A teacher candidate should be familiar with the appropriate graduation requirements as stated in the Southern Wesleyan University General Catalog and the additional requirements explained in the School of Education Teacher Candidate Handbook, available online at <http://education.swu.edu/>.

State law requires that each person enrolled in a teacher education program in South Carolina be advised by the University that a prior criminal record could prevent certification as a teacher in this state. The South Carolina State Department of Education requires each teacher candidate to submit fingerprints and undergo a state criminal records check by the State Law Enforcement Division (SLED) and a national criminal records check by the FBI before the candidate is cleared to participate in clinical experiences. Teacher candidates who have questions about this requirement should see their respective education advisor or the Dean of the School of Education.

A teacher candidate may not graduate or participate in commencement exercises unless all academic and extra-academic requirements have been satisfied. The teacher candidate is responsible for completing all the necessary paperwork and submitting it to the School of Education and/or the Office of the Records before graduation deadlines.

Failure to follow University and State requirements, schedules, and deadlines may result in a delay of one or more semesters in the teacher candidate's program and planned graduation.

Teacher Education Admission Levels

In order to ensure the quality of the teacher education program at Southern Wesleyan University and the teaching profession, a system has been established to monitor the progress of each teacher candidate enrolled in the program. Some of the criteria associated with these admission levels are mandated by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and the South Carolina State Department of Education. Others are required to meet prerequisites established by the University and the School of Education. Each requirement of an admission level must be successfully met or the teacher candidate will be denied permission to take additional education courses and/or required to meet additional requirements as set forth in a Plan of Action developed by the candidate's advisor(s).

Each of the three levels of admission is referred to as a "Lock." A canal lock is a mechanism that lifts or lowers water vessels, such as boats and barges, from one water level to another. Similarly, the School of Education "Locks" facilitate the "elevation" of the candidate from one level of admission to another.

The teacher candidate planning to complete a teacher certification program at Southern Wesleyan University must meet the requirements for admission to the Teacher Education Program in addition to those related to obtaining teacher certification. The teacher candidate must begin the admission process at the conclusion of the second semester of study and continue to complete additional requirements at prescribed points in succeeding semesters. It is the teacher candidate's responsibility to initiate the procedures related to each step in the process. Failure to do so may adversely affect the teacher candidate's completion of the professional education courses and the respective major courses in a timely fashion.

The Lock System of Assessment

The teacher education candidate is responsible for reading the full explanation of the Lock Assessment System in the School of Education Teacher Candidate Handbook, available on line at <http://education.swu.edu/>.

Field Experience Placements

It is the strong belief among the faculty members of the School of Education that the teacher candidate's preparation for the education profession should include field experiences in classrooms that reflect a diverse student population. These classrooms should include students who are characterized by differences in race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, and abilities. Accordingly, the Coordinator of Field Placements will assign the teacher candidate to varying cooperating schools and grade levels that include a demographic makeup that approximates that of the diverse communities comprising the local school districts. Specifically, the teacher candidate will be assigned to a minimum of three different grade levels in three different schools in fulfillment of the requirements of the field experiences.

Pre-Clinical Experience

This is the last field experience prior to the clinical experience (student teaching) and involves the teacher candidate in cooperating classrooms at two different levels. At least one of these assigned pre-clinical classrooms will usually serve as the classroom in which the teacher candidate will partially fulfill the requirements for the clinical experience. A total of 80 hours is required in the cooperating classrooms, half of which must be fulfilled in each academic setting. The teacher candidate will prepare lesson plans and teach lessons in the cooperating classrooms. In order for the teacher candidate to continue to the clinical experience, the cooperating teachers must submit favorable evaluations regarding the student's role in their classroom.

Clinical Experience

The capstone courses for the education major are EDUC 4628 Clinical Experience I and EDUC 4638 Clinical Experience II, which occur during the teacher candidate's last semester. The clinical experience must be considered the highest priority among the teacher candidate's other activities. The fact that the student's schedule has been arranged so that all academic requirements have been fulfilled prior to the Clinical Experience attests to the importance the School of Education faculty assigns to the Clinical Experience semester. Because of the demands inherent with Clinical Experience responsibilities, maintaining part-time employment during the clinical experience semester is strongly discouraged. Permission from the Coordinator of Teacher Education must be obtained to maintain part-time employment, when necessary.

The teacher candidate is evaluated for competency in each of the ten Performance Standards of the South Carolina System for Assisting, Developing, and Evaluating Professional Teaching (ADEPT). The ADEPT instrument is used to evaluate the teacher candidate in a fashion that simulates the formal evaluation process of a teacher employed in the state of South Carolina with at least a provisional contract.

Detailed information regarding the entire Clinical Experience semester is contained in the School of Education Clinical Experience Handbook. This document is distributed to all teacher candidates during the orientation sessions that are scheduled prior to the beginning of the semester during which the teacher candidate plans to complete the Clinical Experience. It is also available online at <http://education.swu.edu/> when the teacher candidate clicks on the "Education Documents" link. Attendance at all orientation sessions is mandatory in preparation for the clinical experience.

Title II Report

Section 207 of Title II of the Higher Education Act mandates that the Department of Education collect data on state assessments, other requirements, and standards for teacher certification and licensure, as well as data on the performance of teacher preparation programs. The law requires the Secretary to use these data in submitting an annual report on the quality of teacher preparation to the Congress. The table below presents the latest data submitted to the Department of Education by the Southern Wesleyan University School of Education.

MASTER OF EDUCATION

Programs Goals

The Master of Education program encourages the development of the professional educator through the accomplishment of the following learner-outcome objectives.

- Recognize the importance of philosophical and psychological learning theory in the development of a personal philosophy of education and as a basis for improving curriculum design and teaching strategies.
- Apply critical thinking skills to identify strengths and weaknesses in current trends in education and to develop appropriate instructional strategies.
- Expand knowledge of learning theory and learning styles, including cognitive development, and apply this knowledge in the development of effective teaching strategies and curriculum design.
- Accept differences among learners as normal and provide for them accordingly by such means as individualized instruction and inclusion.
- Develop a deeper understanding of ethics and values from the Christian perspective and explore methods for conveying positive attitudes and values through curriculum design and instructional activities.
- Recognize the political and social environment of education and the role of government and society in the structure of education today.
- Express ideas clearly, concisely, and logically through effective speech, written communication, and interpersonal skills.
- Develop effective qualitative and quantitative research skills while exploring, in depth, a current curricular or instructional problem of interest to the individual.
- Use the most current technology available in the classroom and in research.
- Employ appropriate assessment and reporting procedures, including alternative assessment models, that empower the student in the assessment process.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

All courses are offered yearly, upon sufficient demand, unless indicated otherwise. Those courses offered on an alternate-year basis have the next academic year of availability indicated by a date within parentheses immediately following the course description.

Although the course generally will be offered on a regular basis, the university reserves the right to introduce or delete courses, depending on sufficient demand.

Those courses graded on a Pass/No Credit basis only are indicated by P/NC.

Institutional credit only (S/NC) does not give graduation credit but does count toward full loads.

The fourth digit in the course number indicates the number of semester credit hours.

Graduate courses carry 5 as the first digit.

ACCOUNTING COURSES

ACCT 0990. Accounting Prerequisite (No credit)

An introductory course in accounting, designed to prepare the student for accounting courses in Southern Wesleyan University graduate programs.

ACCT 105. Accounting with QuickBooks (1 or 2 hours credit)

This is an introductory course to the QuickBooks software program. This is for students who have taken Accounting I and II. You will be working in a lab environment using a textbook that will walk you through an actual case study.

ACCT 1204. Survey of Accounting (AGS)

The preparation, reporting, and analysis of financial data for a sole proprietorship, a partnership, and corporations. Qualitative characteristics of accounting information, inventory evaluation, depreciation, and cash flow analysis.

ACCT 2003, 2013. Principles of Accounting I, II

Use of the accounting process for decision making through identifying, measuring, and communicating economic information. Basic concepts and principles for proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations along with systems for service, merchandising, and manufacturing enterprises. Prerequisite: ACCT 2003 must be taken before ACCT 2013. ECON 1003 must be taken before ACCT 2013 (except accounting majors).

ACCT 280. Accounting Internship (Hours to be determined)

An experiential work experience to provide professional accounting development for freshman and sophomore-level students. Credit may be earned by placement in business for supervised training in accounting (with or without pay). Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading and writing. (The course is graded.)

ACCT 3003, 3013. Intermediate Accounting I, II

An intensive analysis of corporation accounting including financial statements, interrelationships to income and expense accounts, and special emphasis on theory. Prerequisites: ACCT 2003, 2013. ACCT 3003 must be taken before ACCT 3013.

ACCT 3053. Financial and Managerial Accounting (AGS)

Accounting concepts, principles, and methods that influence the financial statements provided to external users and the accounting data used by managers internally. Emphasis on the use of the data by the manager in establishing plans and objectives, controlling operations, and making decisions involved with management of the enterprise. Prerequisite: ACCT 1204, or ACCT 2003 and 2013, or equivalent taken within previous five years.

ACCT 3113, 3123. Income Tax I, II

ACCT 3203. Managerial Accounting

The internal accounting functions that determine the cost of manufacturing products and providing services. Managerial Accounting is applicable to all organizations involved in a conversion process; conversion can include transforming a raw material into a finished good or an idea into an advertising campaign. Prerequisite: ACCT 2013.

ACCT 380. Accounting Internship (Hours to be determined)

An experiential work experience to provide professional accounting development for sophomore and junior-level students. Credit may be earned by placement in business for supervised training in accounting (with or without pay). Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading and writing. (The course is graded.)

ACCT 400. Studies in Accounting (Hours to be determined)

Any topic in accounting meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

ACCT 4013, 4023. Advanced Accounting I, II

Partnerships, procedures for mergers, consolidations, parent and subsidiary relationships and related agencies, and the preparation of the necessary statements and reports thereof. Prerequisites: ACCT 3003 and 3013. ACCT 4013 must be taken before ACCT 4023.

ACCT 4203. Auditing

Examination of the audit attest function, along with the professional responsibilities established by the AICPA. Both concepts and standards will be emphasized, integrating each with the contemporary audit methods and with the complex decisions and judgment process inherent in audit practice. Prerequisites: ACCT 3003, 3013.

ACCT 4511. Accounting Seminar

Emphasis upon research skills and oral communication in a formal setting. A literature review and its oral presentation are required of all students. Special seminar speakers may be invited, or special topics may be discussed.

ACCT 480. Accounting Internship (Hours to be determined)

An experiential work experience to provide professional accounting development for junior and senior-level students. Credit may be earned by placement in business for supervised training in accounting (with or without pay). Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading and writing. (The course is graded.)

ACCT 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours per semester)

ACCT 4993. Major Honors

AESTHETICS COURSES

A passing grade in ASTH 2053 or ASTH 4013 is required for graduation. The requirement may also be met by two consecutive semesters of music ensemble participation, requiring registration for one hour in the fall semester and two in the spring (both contingent on acceptance by audition). More details may be obtained from the music faculty.

ASTH 2053. Aesthetics

An introduction to creativity through art and music. Listening to, viewing of, writing about, and interacting with creative experience introduces the student to art of the Western and non-Western world.

ASTH 400. Studies in Aesthetics (Hours to be determined)

Any topic in aesthetics meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

ASTH 4013. Studies in Aesthetics/London Experience

An introduction to the arts through experiential learning. Students will study original works of art in museums, visit important architectural sites, and attend concerts in and around London, England.

AIR FORCE - AEROSPACE STUDIES COURSES

The Roman numeral at the end of the course title indicates the level (freshman, sophomore, junior, or senior) at which the class is taught.

The credit awarded for ROTC courses is indicated by the Arabic number after the Roman numeral, and preceding the parenthesis. The numbers in the parentheses indicate class hours and lab hours. A ("1" or "2") indicates one classroom hour and two lab hours.

AS 109C. Air Force Today I 2 (1, 2)

The Air Force in the contemporary world, examined through a study of the total force structure: strategic offensive and defensive, general purpose, and aerospace support. Leadership laboratory activities include drill fundamentals, customs, and courtesies of the service.

AS 110C. Air Force Today II 2 (1, 2)

Continuation of AS 109. Leadership laboratory includes drill, ceremonies, and an introduction to Air Force career opportunities.

AS 209C. Development of Air Power II 2 (1, 2)

The study of the development of air power from balloons and dirigibles through the peaceful employment of U.S. air power in relief missions and civic action programs in the late 1970's and also the air war in Southeast Asia. Leadership laboratory provides experience in guiding, directing, and controlling an Air Force unit.

AS 210C. Development of Air Power II 2 (1, 2)

Continuation of AS 209.

AS 309C. Air Force Leadership and Management III 4 (3, 2)

The individual as a manager. Individual motivational and behavioral processes, leadership, communication, and group dynamics provide a foundation for the development of the Air Force officer's professional skills. Students will prepare individual and group presentations, write reports, and participate in group discussions, seminars, and conferences.

AS 310C. Air Force Leadership and Management III 4 (3, 2)

Continuation of AS 309, using the basic managerial processes involving decision-making, utilization of analytical aids in planning, organizing, and controlling environment. Actual case studies are used to enhance learning and communication processes.

AS 409C. National Security Policy IV 4 (3, 2)

Analysis of the role and function of the military officer in a democratic society and the relationships involved in civil-military interactions. Students will be expected to prepare individual and group presentations for the class, write reports, and participate in group discussions.

AS 410C. National Security Policy IV 4 (3, 2)

Continuation of AS 409, examining the environmental context in which U.S. defense policy is formulated and implemented. Emphasis on initial commissioned service and military justice. Students will be expected to prepare individual and group presentations for the class, write reports, and participate in group discussions, seminars, and conferences.

ARMY ROTC – SEE MILITARY SCIENCE COURSES

BIBLE COURSES

BIBL 1003. The Life and Teachings of Jesus

A study of the portrait of Jesus of Nazareth as given in the synoptics and in John. His acts and teachings will be analyzed in relation to the first century and today.

BIBL 1013. Old Testament Survey

The history, poetry, and prophecy of the Old Testament, studied with the purpose of helping the student obtain a chronological view of the importance of persons, places, and events and a greater appreciation for the unity of the old covenant.

BIBL 1023. New Testament Survey

An introduction to the background of the New Testament and to an overall perspective of the New Testament books so that the student will be better able to relate subsequent study of the individual books of the New Testament to the total tenor of Scripture.

BIBL 1053. Old Testament Survey (for religion majors)

The history, poetry, and prophecy of the Old Testament, studied with the purpose of helping religion majors obtain a chronological view of the importance of persons, places, and events and a greater appreciation for the unity of the old covenant. Students will be introduced to higher and lower critical issues as well as to some preliminary hermeneutical considerations for Old Testament books. This course covers essentially the same content and meets the same general education requirement as BIBL 1013, but at a more advanced level for religion majors.

BIBL 1063. New Testament Survey (for religion majors)

An introduction to the background of the New Testament and to an overall perspective of the New Testament books so that religion majors will be better able to relate subsequent study of the individual books of the New Testament to the total tenor of scripture. Students will be introduced to higher and lower critical issues as well as to some preliminary hermeneutical considerations for New Testament books. This course covers essentially the same content and meets the same general education requirements as BIBL 1023, but at a more advanced level for religion majors.

BIBL 2013. Studies in the New Testament (AGS)

An exploration of issues of interest and importance in understanding the New Testament. Among the topics examined: the Roman world of the first century A.D.; development of the New Testament canon; interpretive principles for New Testament study; the so-called "Synoptic Problem"; textual considerations; profiles of New Testament authors; and major themes of the New Testament.

BIBL 2113. Genesis – Inductive Bible Study

A basic introduction to inductive Bible study methods aimed at enabling students to begin developing and refining their ability to study the Bible accurately, systematically, and independently. Emphasis on developing skills in observation, interpretation, and application. Parts of the book of Genesis are used to demonstrate and practice a methodical approach to Bible study.

BIBL 2363. Mark – Inductive Bible Study

A basic introduction to inductive Bible study methods, aimed at enabling the student to begin developing and refining his or her ability to study the Bible accurately, systematically, and independently. Emphasis on developing skills in observation, interpretation, and application. Parts of the Gospel of Mark are used to demonstrate and practice a methodical approach to Bible study that may be used as a basis for subsequent study in other biblical books.

BIBL 3343. Early Pauline Epistles

A doctrinal and historical study of Romans through Galatians and Thessalonians. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1023, 1063, or 2013.

BIBL 3353. Later Pauline Epistles

The New Testament letters Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, Philemon, Timothy, and Titus, with special attention to the person and work of Christ and to church organization and worship. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1023, 1063, or 2013.

BIBL 3363. Hebrews and General Epistles

An analytical study of the doctrinal and practical truths set forth in the New Testament books of Hebrews through Jude. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1023, 1063, or 2013.

BIBL 3393. Acts

Designed to acquaint the student with the beginnings of the Christian Church. Special attention will be given to the work of the Holy Spirit as the essential factor in evangelism and missions. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1023, or 2013.

BIBL 3503. The Gospel of John

An inductive study of the Fourth Gospel. Special attention will be given to Johannine theology and the unique characteristics of this non-synoptic gospel. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1023, 1063, or 2013.

BIBL 4003. Studies in Bible

Study of any topic in Bible meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

BIBL 4013-4103. Biblical Studies

Any topic in Bible that meets the approval of the division chair and academic dean. Topics available include

BIBL 4013: Pentateuch Prerequisite BIBL 1013 or BIBL 1053

BIBL 4023: Isaiah Prerequisite BIBL 1013 or BIBL 1053

BIBL 4033: Romans Prerequisite BIBL 1003, 1023, 1053 or 2013

BIBL 4073: The Holy Land Prerequisite BIBL 1003, 1013, 1023, 1053, or 2013

Offered on sufficient demand.

BIBL 4433. Psalms and Wisdom Literature

An analysis of Old Testament Israel's devotional and wisdom resources in Psalms, Proverbs, Job, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1013, 1053, or 2013.

BIBL 4463. The Revelation and Biblical Prophecy

A study of biblical eschatology and apocalyptic literature in both the Old and New Testaments. The primary focus will be on the Revelation to St. John—its historical setting, the varieties of interpretations of its message, and its relevance to the church today. Prerequisite: BIBL 1003, 1013, 1023, 1053, or 2013.

BIBL 4473. Pre-Exilic Prophets

The minor prophets Hosea to Zephaniah and the major prophet Isaiah, studied in the light of their historical background and message. Prerequisite: BIBL 1013 or 1053.

BIBL 4483. Exilic and Post-Exilic Prophets

The books of Jeremiah through Daniel and the minor prophets Haggai through Malachi, studied in the light of their historical background and message. Prerequisite: BIBL 1013 or 1053

BIBL 4893. Survey of Biblical Study

An overview of the field of biblical literature, covering such topics as hermeneutics, biblical criticism, principles of inductive Bible study, and the history of the Bible in English. Designed to be a capstone course for biblical studies, it is open only to majors and minors with junior or senior standing. Prerequisites: Either BIBL 1003, 1013, 1023, 1053, or 2013.

BIBL 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours each semester)

BIOLOGY COURSES

BIOL 1004, BIOL 1014. General Biology I, II

General Biology I would encompass scientific philosophy and methodology, chemistry and biochemistry, cell biology and genetics. General Biology II would encompass evolution, taxonomy and diversity, basic plant anatomy and physiology, basic animal anatomy and physiology, and ecology. Both semesters include laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 1054. Survey of Anatomy and Physiology

A one-semester survey emphasizing the interrelationships between the various human organ systems. Does not give credit toward a biology, medical technology, pre-medical/pre-dental majors, or nursing. Prerequisite: BIOL 1103, 1004, 2033 or 2034 or PSYC 2003 or permission of instructor. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 1103. Biology for Non-Majors

An introduction for non-majors emphasizing philosophy of science, cell biology, genetics, diversity of organisms, ecology, and evolution. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 2001. Biology Cornerstone Seminar

An introductory seminar for biology majors dealing with the use of library, methods and goals of research, and vocational options for the biologist. Prerequisite: Instructor's permission. P/NC. May be taught concurrently with CHEM 2001.

BIOL 2024. Botany

The phylogenetic relationships within the plant kingdom, and the comparative structure, function, development, and ecology of representative plants. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004 or BIOL 1103, or permission of the instructor. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 2034. Zoology

The phylogenetic relationships within the animal kingdom, and the comparative anatomy, physiology, development, and ecology of representative animals. Prerequisite: BIOL 1014 or 1103, or permission of instructor. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 2051. Scientific Literacy. Course required the second semester of the freshman year in which students learn to write for scientific "publications" and labs, and learn to critique scientific literature appropriately.

BIOL 2074. Environmental Biology

Energetics, pollution, and resource management; the distribution of organisms; the ethics of man's influence on the environment. Prerequisite: BIOL 1004, 1103, or permission of instructor. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 2102 (or 2103). Medical Terminology

A study of medical terminology that will aid in the understanding of medical-related courses and assist in preparation for professions related to medicine.

BIOL 2203. Nutrition

Principles of nutrition, including functions, digestion, and requirements of nutrients; factors affecting food choices and dietary adequacy; role of nutrition in physical fitness and health maintenance. Does not meet lab science general education requirement. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004 or BIOL 1103, CHEM 1004.

BIOL 2254. Ecology

Study of the relationships organisms have with each other and with their environments. Themes include populations, communities, ecosystems, biodiversity, and conservation biology. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004 or 1103, or permission of instructor. An overnight trip is required. (An extra fee may be required.) Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 2263. Ecology of the Rocky Mountains

An on-site study of the interrelationships that exist between the geology, geography, flora and fauna of the Colorado Rocky Mountains. Offered May Term only. Extra fee. Prerequisite: two semesters of lab science.

BIOL 2351. Ornithology Seminar

A basic introduction to the study of birds including diversity, field identification, and song recognition for species common to South Carolina. Students will learn to identify resident birds using field marking, calls and behaviors. Class work will be supplemented by field trips to local birding hotspots which might require minimal cost. Students will spend considerable time in the field and maintain a log of observed species. (Offered in alternate spring semesters; course will begin in March.)

BIOL 2371 Wildlife and Conservation Biology Seminar

An exploration of basic principles of ecology and how they apply to the management and conservation of wildlife. Course lecture and student research material will be supplemented with lectures by representative from local natural resource agencies and through field trips, which might require minimal cost, to local wildlife management demonstration areas. Current trends in wildlife and conservation biology will be addressed through reviews of current research literature. (Offered in alternate spring semesters.)

BIOL 2393 Biology in the News

A survey course in which students explore biology-related topics currently in the news. Emphasis will be placed on current events, issues, and developments and the fundamental biological principles behind them. Coursework will consist of readings, problem-based learning exercises, electronic discussions, topical study guides, and written tests. Does not meet general education requirement for a lab science.

BIOL 3033. Immunology

Introduction to the structure, function, production, and reactions of antibodies, and a study of immunity in general. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004, CHEM 1004, 1054; or permission of instructor. Offered on demand.

BIOL 3064. Entomology

Study of the anatomy, physiology, and behavior of insects and related animals. Lab work includes capturing and identifying insects. Prerequisite: BIOL 2033 or 2034, or permission of instructor. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3074. Field Biology

An introduction to methods and techniques for studying populations and communities in their natural settings. Includes emphasis on the plants and animals of South Carolina. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004 or 1103 or permission of instructor. An overnight trip is required. (An extra fee may be required.) Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3104. Microbiology

Study of common forms of bacteria, viruses, protozoa and fungi, and their relationship to plant and animal life and to public health. Bacteriological techniques are taught in the laboratory. Prerequisites: CHEM 1004, 1054; BIOL 1004; BIOL 1033 or 2034. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3204, 3214. Anatomy and Physiology I, II

A two-semester study of human structure and function as an integrated whole. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004, 2034. BIOL 3204, or instructor's permission, is a prerequisite for BIOL 3214. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3254 (CHEM 3254). Biochemistry

A study of physiologically significant organic molecules. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004, CHEM 2504, or Medical Laboratory Technician or equivalent certification. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3303. Animal Behavior

Designed to investigate the physiological bases of animal behavior and the behavior of animals in response to their environment. PSYC 3303 is identical. Prerequisites: PSYC 2003; BIOL 1004, 1054, 1103, 2033 or 2034; ENGL 1013.

BIOL 3313. Bioethics

A study of the ethical dilemmas posed by human effect on the environment at large and those encountered in medical practice. Prerequisites: ENGL 1013, and permission of the instructor. Required philosophy course for biology, medical technology, pre-dentistry, and pre-medicine majors.

BIOL 3403. Physiology of Behavior.

Designed to investigate the anatomical and physiological basis of human behavior, including the physiological bases of diseases and disorders which affect human behavior. Prerequisites: PSYC 2003; BIOL 1004, 1054, 1103, 2033 or 2034. (May not be used to meet the physiology requirement in a biology major.)

BIOL 3454. Cellular and Molecular Biology

An introduction to structure and function of cells and tissues, and the techniques for studying them, with emphasis on animal material. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004, 2034, CHEM 1004, and CHEM 1054, or permission of instructor. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3504. Genetics

Mendelism; population genetics; the genetic code; protein synthesis; differentiation and control of gene action. Prerequisites: BIOL 1103 or 1004; ENGL 1013; proficiency in mathematics. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

BIOL 3653. The Ecology of South Carolina—Mountains to the Sea

Despite its small size, South Carolina possesses a wide array of natural communities. This course will explore the natural history of South Carolina's four physiographic provinces: Blue Ridge, Piedmont, Sandhills, and Coastal Plain. Emphasis will be on basic principles of ecology, field study techniques, identification of local flora and fauna, and general nature interpretation. The course will incorporate various outdoor laboratory investigations and field trips to a number of natural areas. Some of the field trips will involve overnight stays at minimal cost. Prerequisites: BIOL 1004 or 1103 or permission of instructor. Includes laboratory. Extra fee. (Offered during Mayterm.)

BIOL 3753/5753. Natural History for Teachers – Bringing Nature to the Classroom

An introduction to the study of natural history for in-service or pre-service teachers. Emphasis will be on identification of local flora and fauna, nature interpretation, and principles of ecology. Instruction will take place via classroom instruction and field trips to local natural areas. Grading will consist of quizzes, tests, and development of standards-based instructional materials involving content from the course.

BIOL 400-419. Biology Studies (1 to 4 semester hours)

Any topic in biology meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Hours of credit and laboratory fee (if any) are to be determined. Courses numbered 400-409 are directed study by individuals; those numbered 410-419 are experimental courses not described above. Offered on sufficient demand. 400-409 graded P/NC. Prerequisite: consent of instructor.

BIOL 4253. Neurobiology

An introduction to the cellular physiology of the mammalian brain with particular focus on the electrical properties of neurons, the process of neurotransmission and the general properties of the neuronal circuits. Areas of the brain and specific brain circuits involved in learning and memory, movement and emotion will be studied as a means of applying general principles of neurobiology. Prerequisite: BIOL 1004, 1054, 1103.

BIOL 4354/BIOL 4353. Comparative and Environmental Physiology.

A comparative study of anatomical, physiological and biochemical adaptations of various animals. Prerequisites: ENGL 1013; competency in mathematics; BIOL 1004 and 2034; CHEM 1004 and 1054. Laboratory included. Lab fee required.

BIOL 4501. Biology Capstone Seminar

Study of philosophy of science, presenting scientific information in oral and written form, final science comprehensive oral examinations, administration of required final assessment instrument (Major Field Test, or equivalent). Prerequisites: Senior standing or permission of instructor. ENGL 1013 and BIOL 2001 or CHEM 2001.

BIOL 480. Biology Senior Practicum (Hours to be determined)

An internship off-campus, to provide professional development for senior-level students. (See p. 25) Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing. (P/NC)

BIOL 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours per semester)

BIOL 4993. Major Honors

BIOL 5753/BIOL 3753. Natural History for Teachers

An introduction to the study of natural history for in-service or pre-service teachers. Emphasis will be on identification of local flora and fauna, nature interpretation, and principles of ecology. Instruction will take place via classroom instruction and field trips to local natural areas. Grading will consist of quizzes, tests, and development of standards-based instructional materials involving content from the course. May be taken for graduate or undergraduate credit. Additional charge to cover field trips.

CHEMISTRY COURSES – See CHEM

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION COURSES

CHED 2013. Teaching for Spiritual Impact

An overview of the ministry of teaching as it relates to the propagation of the Gospel. Includes the biblical foundations for Christian teaching, a developmental approach to the teaching/learning process, and the methodology of the instructional process.

CHED 2153. Introduction to Christian Education

A basic introduction to the teaching ministry of the local church by examination of Biblical, theological, and philosophical foundations of educational ministry. Areas addressed are procedures and the teaching and learning processes for persons at various stages of the life-cycle.

CHED 2303. Ministry to Children

The development of children, evangelism and discipleship of children, organization and design of children's ministries, specific learning activities geared to age-level traits, and the preparation and use of various teaching aids. Equips students to work with children from infancy through grade six.

CHED 3303. Christian Education Ministry in the Local Church

Focus on various educational ministries of the local church, including Sunday School, children's church, children's club ministries, youth groups, adult Bible studies, discipleship groups, missions education, and other related programs.

CHED 400. Studies in Christian Education (To be determined)

Any topic in Christian Education meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

CHED 430I. Practicum

Designed to suit individual needs in a variety of settings, including the local church, social agencies, community projects, institutions. Designed to apply theoretical understanding in a given situation. Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing. P/NC

CHED 4303. Ministry with Adults

A study of adult development, the needs and interests of adults at various stages of the life cycle, the organization of the church to serve adults, and the means of enlisting and empowering adults for ministry in the local church.

CHED 4403. Family Life Ministry

The sociological, psychological, and spiritual dynamics of family life and ministry for, to, and with families. Special emphasis on equipping families for discipleship in the home, education for parenting, and intergenerational ministry in the church.

CHED 449I. Christian Education Seminar (topical seminar—intensive module format)

Possible topics include family life ministry, curriculum and instructional media for CE, instructional simulation and discovery learning, small groups, young adult ministry, senior adult ministry, CE ministry with exceptional learners, equipping and training for CE leadership, missions and CE.

CHED. 490. Independent Study (1-3 hours)

CHEMISTRY COURSES

CHEM 1004, 1054. General Chemistry I, II

I - Principles of inorganic chemistry as illustrated by important elements, compounds, and reactions. II - Introduction to physical chemistry and qualitative analysis. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required. Prerequisite: Mathematics competency.

CHEM 2001. Chemistry Cornerstone Seminar

An introductory seminar for chemistry majors dealing with the use of library, methods and goals of research, and vocational options for the chemist. P/NC. May be taught concurrently with BIOL 2001. Prerequisites: Mathematics competency and instructor's permission.

CHEM 2504. Organic Chemistry I

Study of the preparations and reactions of the various organic functional groups with emphasis upon the mechanisms of the reactions. Prerequisites: CHEM 1004, 1054 or permission of instructor, and mathematics competency. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

CHEM 2514. Organic Chemistry II

Study of the preparations and reactions of the various organic functional groups with emphasis upon the mechanisms of the reactions. Prerequisites: CHEM 1004, 1054 or permission of instructor, and mathematics competency. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

CHEM 3254 (BIOL 3254). Biochemistry

A study of physiologically significant organic molecules. Prerequisites: BIOL 1003 or 1004, CHEM 2503; or Medical Laboratory Technician or equivalent certification, and mathematics competency. Includes laboratory. Lab fee required.

CHEM 3404. Inorganic Analysis

Analysis of inorganic compounds and inorganic elements in organometallic compounds. Laboratory included. Prerequisites: CHEM 1054 and mathematics competency. Lab fee required.

CHEM 3414. Organic Analysis

Chemical and instrumental methods commonly used on organic compounds and mixtures. Laboratory included. Prerequisites: CHEM 1054 and mathematics competency. Lab fee required.

CHEM 400-419. Chemistry Studies (1 to 4 semester hours)

Any topic in chemistry meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Hours of credit and laboratory fee (if any) are to be determined. Courses numbered 400-409 are directed study by individuals; those numbered 410-419 are experimental courses not described above. Offered on sufficient demand. 400-409 graded P/NC. Prerequisite: consent of instructor.

CHEM 4501. Chemistry Capstone Seminar

Study of philosophy of science literature, presenting scientific information in oral and written form, final science comprehensive oral examinations, administration of required final assessment instrument (Major Field Test, or equivalent). Prerequisites: Senior standing or permission of instructor, ENGL 1013, and BIOL 2001 or CHEM 2001, and mathematics competency.

CHEM 480. Chemistry Senior Practicum (Hours to be determined)

An internship off-campus, to provide professional development for senior-level students. (See p. 25.) Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing. (P/NC)

CHEM 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours per semester)

CHEM 4993. Major Honor

COMPUTING COURSES

CPSC 1003. Fundamentals of Programming

Introduction to the application of program development concepts and tools. Use of such tools as pseudo-code and flowcharting to produce top-down structured solutions to business and scientific applications. Emphasis given to program documentation and debugging. Lab fee required.

CPSC 1103. Introduction to Computers and Information Processing

Introduction to the history, vocabulary, and use of computer information systems. Includes word processing, spreadsheet, and presentation applications using the integrated package Microsoft Office. Lab fee required.

CPSC 1113. Introduction to Computers and Music Software

Introduction to the history, vocabulary, and use of computer information systems. Includes word processing, spreadsheet, and presentation applications using the integrated package Microsoft Office. The music software program Finale will serve as a foundation for computer-assisted music notation. Musical Instrument Digital Interface (MIDI) and digital music formats will be discussed, explored, and used in unrelated music software programs such as Windows Media, Band in a Box, and Smart Music. Open only to music majors and minors. Lab fee required.

CPSC 1203. Introduction to the Internet, Online Research, and Web Site Design

Topics include the history, evolution, structure, and management of the Internet; the influence of the Internet on society; locating and synthesizing information online; Hypertext Markup Language; and building web pages. Lab fee required.

CPSC 1903. Introduction to Computer Science Programming

Introduction to programming and basic computer science principles and algorithms. Topics include fundamental computer science theory, number systems, thinking strategies, Tanenbaum's virtual machine, recursion, data structures, and addressing. Prerequisite: Satisfactory performance on computer science placement test or CPSC 1003. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2103 (MGMT 2103). Advanced Software

Advanced topics in word processing, spreadsheets, databases, electronic presentations, the Internet, and the integration of the above, using the Windows operating system and Microsoft Office. Prerequisite: CPSC 1103. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2203. Desktop Design

Design, capture, and processing of digital graphic elements in published material (with emphasis on the Internet as the publishing medium). Introduction to design concepts. Prerequisite: CPSC 1103 and CPSC 1203 or permission of instructor. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2253. Object-Oriented Programming I

Introduction to object-oriented design and programming using a modern object programming language. Studying language syntax, program construction, and debugging techniques provides the foundation to design and implement new solutions for common business applications. Prerequisite: CPSC 1903 and CPSC 2203 or permission of instructor. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2293. Web Page Design and Programming

Web page design and programming syntax and use of HTML and DHTML to implement those designs. Design elements include text, forms, tables, frames, graphics, sound, white space, images, animation, and intra-page, intra-site, and inter-site hyperlinks. Introduction to scripting and XML. Prerequisite: CPSC 1203 and CPSC 1003, or CPSC 1903. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2303. Hardware and Software Configuration and Support

Concepts of PC hardware and software configuration and help desk technical support in a business environment. Troubleshooting and hardware peripheral maintenance and repair, basic application installations, printer maintenance, and end-user public relations. Prerequisite: CPSC 1903 or permission of instructor. Includes lab. Lab tools required. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2313. Elements of Graphic Design

Computer graphics and basic elements of graphic design and practice, with emphasis on design for the Internet. Students will evaluate existing web sites for their graphic design and implementation. Individual projects will be required. Prerequisites: CPSC 2203 or permission of instructor. Lab fee required.

CPSC 2503. Networking I

A study of the protocols employed to implement business and organizational solutions on an intranet or the Internet. Analysis of available hardware and software used in the design of networks and the respective cost/benefit tradeoffs. Prerequisite: CPSC 2303 or permission of instructor.

CPSC 3003. Database Design and Implementation I

Methods of database planning, design, and development. Management topics include data integrity, privacy, and security. File systems, hierarchical and networked databases, and relational online databases. Prerequisite: CPSC 2253 and CPSC 2293. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3013. Database Design and Implementation II

Advanced database design, creation, maintenance, and security using the SQL or SQL type language. The online databases will be implemented using current database engines and interfaces. Prerequisite: CPSC 2503 and CPSC 3003. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3103. Systems Analysis and Design

Theory and practice of determining data flow in a small enterprise environment. The Systems Development Life Cycle methodology will be the process used to develop appropriate solutions. Local business case studies will serve as class projects. Prerequisite: CPSC 2503, 3003 and 3354.

CPSC 3303. Object-Oriented Programming II

Advanced study of the concepts and application of an Object-Oriented Event Driven (OOED) approach to developing solutions to business problems. Prerequisite: CPSC 2253. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3313. Developing Distributed Applications

Advanced concepts and the associated technologies required to develop and implement distributed software solutions to business problems. Prerequisite: CPSC 3003 and 3303. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3354. Operating Systems and Servers

Design concepts of advanced PC operating systems. Focus on modern operating systems and server theory, as well as hands-on lab projects. Prerequisite: CPSC 2303 and CPSC 2503 or permission of instructor. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3403. Digital Photography and Image Rendering

Analysis of image formats, rendering, layering, and composition for electronic multimedia. Techniques and software packages for animating existing graphic images and the creation of new animated images. Topics include realistic representation, illumination, and bandwidth management. Prerequisite: CPSC 2203 and 2293 or permission of instructor. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3413. Designing Electronic Multimedia

Design, development, and publishing multimedia for business applications. Includes the creation of graphical, photographic, video, sound, animation, multimedia authoring, virtual reality applications suitable for publication on the Internet or other electronic media. Prerequisites: CPSC 2203 and CPSC 2293, or permission of instructor. Lab fee required.

CPSC 3623. Networking II

The techniques employed to implement business/organizational networking solutions. Includes transmission media, client-server strategies, throughput and response time, systems architecture, and cost/benefit tradeoffs. Prerequisite: CPSC 2503. Lab fee required

CPSC 3633. Networking III

An advanced study of protocols employed to implement business/organizational networking solutions. An in-depth analysis of available hardware and software used in the design of networks and the respective cost/benefit tradeoffs. Prerequisite: CPSC 3354 and CPSC 3623. Lab fee required

CPSC 4201. Ethics and Professional Issues in Computing

Ethical and professional issues relating to the use of computer software, hardware, and information systems. Prerequisite: Senior standing and permission of instructor.

CPSC 4303. Advanced Scripting and Common Language Interfaces

A study of the advanced programming techniques of powerful scripting languages. Students will analyze scripts and design new applets. Strong focus on design, documentation, and debugging. Prerequisite: CPSC 3013, 3303, and CPSC 3354. Lab fee required

CPSC 4423. Advanced Networking Applications

An advanced study of network applications and protocols to implement networking solutions. Analysis of available hardware and software used in the design of network support. Prerequisite: CPSC 3633. Lab fee required

CPSC 4503. Webmastering

Knowledge and skills in technology, content, marketing, budgeting, and business management. Management of web site creation, computer and communication equipment selection, and stakeholder interaction to maximize the effectiveness and efficiency of an organization's on-line presence. Case studies and actual projects are used. Prerequisite: CPSC 3103. Lab fee required.

CPSC 4523. Advanced Web Site Design

Advanced concepts and elements of web site design. Advanced web page editors are used to build the web pages. On-line research and analysis provide the foundation for building a small enterprise environment group project. Prerequisites: CPSC 3103. Lab fee required

CPSC 400-419. Studies in Computer Science (1 to 4 semester hours)

Any topic in computer science meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Courses numbered 400-409 are directed study by individuals; those numbered 410-419 are experimental courses not described above. Offered on sufficient demand. 400-409 graded P/NC. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. May require lab fee.

CPSC 4603. Advanced Business Solutions (Project)

CPSC 4613. Advanced Application Development

CPSC 4623. Special Topics in Internet Computing

CPSC 470. Internship with Business

Prerequisite: Junior/senior status and permission of coordinator of studies in computing. Students must also meet the university's requirements for Senior Practicum, specified on page 25. Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing.

ECONOMICS COURSES

ECON 0990. Economics Prerequisite (No credit)

An introductory course in economics, designed to prepare the student for economics courses in Southern Wesleyan University graduate programs.

ECON 1003. Introduction to Business

An introductory course designed to prepare the student for a major or minor in business at Southern Wesleyan University School of Business. During this course a specialized Student Development Plan (SDP) will be created for each individual student.

ECON 2003, 2013. Principles of Economics I, II

An introduction to economic analysis and its applications to business or government problems. Emphasis on national income, business cycles, price levels, employment, basic supply and demand theory, market structure, monopoly, and distribution of income. Prerequisite: Mathematics competency. ECON 2003 (or permission of instructor) is prerequisite to 2013.

ECON 2053. Micro Economics

An introduction to economic analysis and its application to business problems. Emphasis on business cycles, employment, monopoly and distribution of income. Prerequisite: Mathematics competency.

ECON 2063. Macro Economics

An introduction to economic analysis and its application to government problems. Emphasis on national income, price levels, basic supply and demand theory, and market structure. Prerequisite: Mathematics competency.

ECON 2093. International Economic Systems and Culture

Investigation of the economic systems, practices and institutions within a particular nation and their interaction with local cultural dynamics. The course involves an international trip. May be taken more than once if nation studied is different.

ECON 2103. Personal Finance

Emphasizes comprehensive personal financial planning through the use of an integrative case that gives practical experience in decision making. Notes impact of personal computers, tax reform, major changes in financial institutions, new methods of borrowing, expanding insurance coverage, and novel investment ideas.

ECON 3053. The New e-Commerce Economy II

An introduction to economic analysis and its applications to business or government problems. Emphasis on national income, business cycles, price levels, employment, basic supply and demand theory, market structure, monopoly, and distribution of income.

ECON 400. Studies in Economics (Hours to be determined)

Any topic in economics meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

EDUCATION COURSES

Note: A prerequisite for enrollment in Education courses, except EDUC 1201, EDUC 2113, EDUC 3003, EDUC 3123, EDUC 3663, and EDUC 3203, is the completion of the requirements of the Lock I Assessment.

Education courses, except EDUC 1003, EDUC 1013, EDUC 3153, and EDUC 3163, are designed only for those seeking teacher certification.

EDUC 1151 Teacher Cadet

Students completing a qualified South Carolina Teacher Cadet course at their respective high school and meeting the criteria established by CERRA (Center for Educator Requirement, Retention, and Advancement) with a grade of "B" or better may receive one hour of elective credit in Education.

EDUC 1003 American Sign Language I

Focuses on major language functions used in everyday conversation. The basics of ASL grammar structure, the manual alphabet, and other vocabulary are also taught. (Fall, Even Years)

EDUC 1013 American Sign Language II

Focuses on fluency, correct structuring of the language, and competency in expressive as well as receptive communication skills. Includes additional vocabulary. Prerequisite: EDUC 1003 or demonstrated ASL competency (Spring, Odd Years)

EDUC 1201 Cornerstone in Education

This course presents the teacher candidate with an overview of the education major and the teaching profession. Topics discussed include characteristics of the current teaching profession, the role of the teacher within the school, requirements for admission into the SWU Teacher Education Program, the Praxis test requirements, developing an e-portfolio, and the process of teacher certification in South Carolina. Candidates will also become familiar with the SWU Teacher Education Handbook. This course is a prerequisite for all other education courses. Required of all teacher candidates. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 2002 Health Education

Personal and community health problems, studied through analysis of the various forces that play upon the human organism. Attention is given to the application of scientific facts and principles for the maintenance and improvement of health. Required of all physical education teacher candidates. (Fall)

EDUC 2033 Early Childhood Math Methods

Methods and materials for teaching mathematics from pre-kindergarten through grade three. Required of all early childhood teacher candidates. Prerequisite: Math competency (MATH 1003 and MATH 1013) (Spring)

EDUC 2043 Elementary School Math Methods

Prerequisite: Math competency (MATH 1003 and MATH 1013)

Methods and materials for teaching mathematics from grades two through six. Required of all elementary education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: Math competency (MATH 1003 and MATH 1013) (Spring)

EDUC 2113 Foundations of Education

Sociological and philosophical foundations of Western education. Included will be a study of the crucial issues found in our present schools. Required of all teacher candidates. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 3003 Effective Methods for the Elementary School/Field Experience

The purposes, parent-school-community relationships, curriculum, and activities of the elementary school. The first half of the course includes methods taken from the effective teaching research. Included in this course will be 30 hours of field placement experience. Required of all elementary education and special education teacher candidates. (Replaces practicum EDUC 250.) Prerequisites: GPA 2.5, sophomore status. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 3042 Children's Literature

A survey intended to provide prospective teachers with opportunity for interpretative and critical study of literature suitable for children. The characteristics of subject matter, literary style, and the ways of illustrating are discussed. Wide reading is required. Required of all early childhood and elementary education teacher candidates. (Fall)

EDUC 3072 Emergent Literacy

Includes all of the areas of Language Arts applied to teaching young children. Issues in oral language development, listening, writing, and reading in birth through grade three programs will be considered. The teacher candidates will be prepared to identify and choose a language arts curriculum for young children that is appropriate to their needs. Required of all early childhood education teacher candidates. (Fall)

EDUC 3123 Effective Methods for the Secondary School/ Field Experience

The purposes, parent-school-community relationships, curriculum, and activities of the secondary school. Studies in educational tests and measurement are also included. Included in this course will be 30 hours of field placement experience. Required of all secondary candidates. (Replaces practicum EDUC 250). Prerequisites: GPA 2.5, sophomore status. (Fall)

EDUC 3153 Teaching Reading and Writing to Limited English Proficient (LEP) Learners

Early literacy development of English learners; reading readiness from readiness perspective and emergent literacy perspective; visual form of written language; the role of home and school environments to promote early literacy; and development of classroom strategies to promote early literacy through specific strategies for teaching reading and writing. Prerequisites: Junior status, including completion of ENGL 3103, or permission of instructor.

Offered at departmental discretion.

EDUC 3163 Testing/Assessment for Language Minority Learners

Types and formats for effective testing and assessment of LEP students. Designing and testing effective assessment measures in addition to researching good practices in language assessment. Prerequisites: Junior status; successful completion of ENGL 3103, ENGL 4203, and ENGL 3003; or permission of instructor. Designed to be the last course in the minor prior to TESOL practicum. Offered at departmental discretion.

EDUC 3183 Ethics in Education

A study of representative ethical theories as they relate to various contemporary problems in education. Special consideration will be given to the application of Christian ethical principles to values clarification and decision-making in schools. Required of all teacher candidates. May meet general education philosophy requirement. (Fall)

EDUC 3203 Introduction to Psychology of Exceptional Children

The history of educating exceptional children. An examination of the special problems confronted in dealing with the gifted, retarded, emotionally disturbed, or physically handicapped child. Included in this course will be 30 hours of service learning. Required of all teacher candidates except physical education.. This course is a prerequisite for all other Special Education courses. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 3233 Methods of Teaching the Learning Disabled

Principles, methods, and materials for teaching the learning-disabled student. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: EDUC 4233 (Spring, Even Years)

EDUC 3243 Characteristics of Mild to Moderate Mental Disabilities/Field Experience

The causes and treatment of the mentally subnormal individual with attention given to the special psychological problems of this group. The social issues involved in the prevention and treatment of mental deficiency will be presented. Included in this course will be a field placement experience. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: EDUC 3203. (Fall, Even Years)

EDUC 3253 Procedures for the Mildly Disabled in the Content Areas

Materials, methods, curriculum development, and writing specific objectives for the mildly handicapped. Also practical instructional strategies in the self-help skills. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Elective for regular education teacher candidates.. Prerequisites: EDUC 3203, EDUC 3243, EDUC 4233. (Spring, Odd Years)

EDUC 3263 Educational Procedures for the Severe/Profound Mentally Handicapped

The selection and preparation of suitable materials for the trainable mentally handicapped. Emphasis on developing appropriate teaching skills. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Prerequisites: EDUC 3203, EDUC 3243. (On Demand)

EDUC 3273 Teaching Reading in the Secondary School/Field Experience

Methods of improving knowledge and skills in the secondary content areas by implementing strategies that use and develop language literacy skills (reading, writing, speaking, listening). Included in this course will be 36 hours of field placement experience. Includes former practicum EDUC 350. Required of all secondary and P-12 teacher candidates. (Fall)

EDUC 3292 Classroom Management

Classroom management techniques with particular emphasis on creating a democratic classroom in consideration of current law. Management application models are discussed in the context of classroom environments. Prerequisite: Enrollment in EDUC 450, Pre-Clinical Field Experience with placement in a cooperating school as arranged by the Director of Field Placements. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 3362 Behavior of the Preschool Child

The preschool child, including systematic observation and participation. Required of all early childhood education teacher candidates. Prerequisites: Junior status, PSYC 2003, and PSYC 3103. Co-requisite EDUC 3773. (Spring)

EDUC 3523 (PSYC 3523) Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment for General/Special Education

A survey of assessment practices that facilitate student learning. Topics include the policies of the federal government that have influenced the funding of state education, the role of the learner in assessment practices, types of assessments, the planning and construction of valid and reliable assessments, standardized tests, and basic statistical applications. (Spring)

EDUC 3663 Effective Methods for Early Childhood Education/Field Experience

The purposes, parent-school-community relationships, curriculum, and activities of the early childhood. Included in this course will be 30 hours of field placement experience. Required of all early childhood education teacher candidates. (Replaces practicum EDUC 250). (Fall)

EDUC 3702 Teaching Language Arts in the Elementary School

Methods course in teaching language arts, which consists of oral language, listening, writing, reading, and viewing. The teacher candidate will demonstrate knowledge of the process skills and standards involved in teaching these modes of language in the elementary school. Required of all elementary education teacher candidates. (Fall)

EDUC 3742 Creative Arts in the Elementary School

This course integrates the areas of visual arts, music, and drama, with other content in the elementary curricular sequences to help early childhood, elementary, and special education teachers create a balanced approach to learning in the classroom. The vocabulary and skills needed to enrich each of the areas of the creative arts will be considered along with the artistic development of children. Planning for the creative arts through theme-based units and hands-on activities will broaden overall awareness for the arts. Required of all early childhood, elementary, and special education teacher candidates. (Fall)

EDUC 3763 Teaching Science in the Elementary School/Field Experience

This course is designed to provide an overview of methods, materials, and current research relating to the teaching of science in the elementary school classroom rather than teaching the skills and knowledge bases for science. The purpose is to enable the teacher candidate to effectively teach science concepts in the elementary school. Emphasis will be placed on student-centered approaches to science including discovery, inquiry, and experimentation. Current theories and standards for using science process skills and various technologies in the elementary classroom are explored. Required of all elementary education teacher candidates. Included in this course will be 36 hours of field placement experience. (Replaces practicum EDUC 350). Prerequisites: BIOL 1103, PHSC 1503, PHSC 1513. (Fall)

EDUC 3773 Early Childhood Science Methods/Field Experience

This course is designed to provide an overview of methods, materials, and current research relating to the teaching of science in the early childhood classroom rather than teaching the skills and knowledge bases for science. The purpose is to enable the teacher candidate to effectively teach science concepts in the grades K-3. Emphasis will be placed on student-centered approaches to science including discovery, inquiry, and experimentation. Current theories and standards for using science process skills and various technologies in early childhood classrooms are explored. Cooperative groups will research and develop thematic units based on S.C. Standards for Science. Materials for the thematic unit will address pupil needs across the curriculum. Required of all early childhood education teacher candidates. Included in this course will be 36 hours of field placement experience. (Replaces practicum EDUC 350). Prerequisites: BIOL 1103, PHSC 1503, PHSC 1513; Corequisite: EDUC 3362.

(Spring)

EDUC 3783 Teaching Social Studies in the Elementary School

This course is designed to provide an overview of methods, materials, and current research related to the teaching of social studies in the elementary school classroom rather than to teach the skills and knowledge bases of social studies. The purpose is to enable the teacher candidate to effectively teach social studies concepts in the elementary school. Emphasis will be placed on student-centered approaches to social studies, including inquiry-based methods. Current theories and standards for using social studies process skills and various technologies in the elementary classroom are explored. Required of all elementary education teacher candidates.. Prerequisites: HIST 106, HIST 205. (Spring)

EDUC 4013 Teaching Social Studies in Early Childhood Settings

Designed to provide an overview of methods, materials, and current research relating to the teaching of social studies rather than to teach social studies knowledge. The purpose is to enable the teacher candidate to effectively teach social studies concepts to young children (grades K-3) through integrated units, experiences, and inquiry-based activities appropriate for the young child. Required of all early childhood education teacher candidates.. Prerequisites: HIST 106, HIST 205. (Fall)

EDUC 4043 The Teaching of Reading in General and Special Education

Issues and problems in reading and writing instruction are introduced with an emphasis on current theory and methods that enhance the literacy program in the elementary school. Required of all early childhood, elementary education, and special education teacher candidates. (Spring)

EDUC 4052 Assessing Reading and Guiding Instruction

Introduction to reading diagnosis and diagnostic/prescriptive reading exercises. Required of all early childhood and elementary education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: EDUC 4043. (Spring)

EDUC 4092. Elementary Music Methods

A practical course designed to give the music major instructional skills needed to successfully teach music to elementary students (grades 1-6) in the context of the South Carolina Visual Performing Arts Curriculum Standards. The students will be acquainted with the strategies that are unique to the Kodaly methods and the Orff approach of learning and experiencing music. The course will also integrate the folk songs and instrumental music that are indigenous to the Americas, Africa, and Asia. Pre-clinical experiences including observation and teaching in selected elementary school music classrooms will be included. Prerequisite: MUSC 2023.

EDUC 4112 Secondary Choral Music Methods and Materials.

Principles, methods, and materials for teaching choral music in middle school and high school, in the framework of the S.C. Visual and Performing Arts Curriculum Standards. Includes administrative and supervisory practices, rehearsal and vocal techniques, classroom discipline, and literature, including the music of the Americas, Africa, and Asia. Required of all P-12 music education teacher candidates.. Prerequisites: MUSC 2023, MUSC 3062. (Spring)

EDUC 4122 Secondary Instrumental Music Methods and Materials

Includes administrative and supervisory practices, marching band and jazz ensemble techniques, instrumental music software and computer-assisted instruction, and secondary instrumental literature including music of the Americas, Africa, and Asia. Required of all P-12 music education teacher candidates.. Prerequisites: MUSC 2023, MUSC 3062. (Spring)

EDUC 4153 Methods of Teaching English in the Secondary/Middle School

The principles and methods of teaching high/middle school English. Appropriate materials to be used will also be included. Required of all secondary English education teacher candidates. Offered at departmental discretion.

EDUC 4202 Methods of Teaching Science in the Secondary/Middle School

This course is an introduction to the philosophy and practice of teaching science at the secondary and/or middle school level. Topics include short- and long-term planning, effective instructional strategies, and multi-faceted assessment. Required of all secondary biology education teacher candidates. Offered at departmental discretion.

EDUC 4223 Methods of Teaching Mathematics in the Secondary/Middle School

Methods, techniques, and procedures of presentation of mathematics in the classroom. Special attention to the laboratory approach, games, the discovery-inquiry approach, number theory and systems, and individualized approach. Required of all secondary math education teacher candidates. Offered at departmental discretion.

EDUC 4233 Characteristics of Learning Disabilities

The etiology, characteristics, curriculum adaptations, and techniques of intervention with learning-disabled children. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: EDUC 3203. (Fall, Odd Years)

EDUC 4243 Psychology of the Behavior/Emotional Disorders

Identifying, understanding, and planning for the behavior disordered and emotionally disabled students in a special education placement or an inclusion-type classroom setting. Includes study of the field, current trends, identifying characteristics, and possible causes of these disorders. Incorporation of assessment data, observational findings, and other sources of information to aid in the appropriate educational planning for children and youth. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: EDUC 3203. (Spring, Even Years)

EDUC 4253 Educational Procedures for the Emotionally Handicapped and/or Behavior Disordered Student

Intervention strategies, behavior management techniques, curriculum modifications, and writing accurate educational plans. Attention also to legal requirements and implications for the classroom. Projects provide an opportunity to apply the skills learned during the course. Required of all special education teacher candidates. Prerequisite: EDUC 4243. (Fall, Even Years)

EDUC 4502 Pre-Clinical Experience

The last school practicum experience prior to the clinical experience. Candidates are assigned to two preclinical experiences at two different levels. One-half of the candidate's time is spent in each academic setting. The candidates prepare lesson plans and teach mini-lessons. All candidates must receive favorable evaluations by the supervising teachers, as well as credit for the course, to proceed to Clinical Experience I. The teacher candidate must provide evidence that Praxis II: Subject Assessment Tests and Praxis II: Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) Test have either been attempted or passed during this course. Required of all education candidates in all programs the semester before Clinical Experience. Prerequisites: Full admission to Teacher Education, GPA of at least 2.5, competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing skills. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 4628 Clinical Experience I

An integrated course in observation, participation, conferencing, and actual teaching; class management and modern methods of teaching; and planning, instruction, supervised study, uses of standard tests, and individual instruction. Candidates are generally assigned to one of their pre-clinical experience supervising teachers. Students are responsible for their own transportation. Required of all education candidates in all programs. The teacher candidate must achieve minimum scores on the Praxis II: Subject Assessment Tests and the Praxis II: Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) Test before the conclusion of the semester in which EDUC 4628 and EDUC 4638 are scheduled to be recommended for teacher certification. Prerequisite: EDUC 4502, completion of all coursework and Lock II Assessment criteria. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 4638 Clinical Experience II

A continuation of EDUC 4628. Students are responsible for their own transportation. Required of all education candidates in all programs. The teacher candidate must achieve minimum scores on the Praxis II: Subject Assessment Tests and the Praxis II: Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) Test before the conclusion of the semester in which EDUC 4628 and EDUC 4638 are scheduled to be recommended for teacher certification. Prerequisite: EDUC 4628. (Fall, Spring)

EDUC 490-498. Independent Study (I-3 hours per semester)

EDUC 4993. Major Honors

GRADUATE COURSES

EDUC 5113 Philosophy of Education

Introduction to contemporary philosophy of education as an academic discipline. Focuses on Anglo-American tradition and includes study of language analysis, argument analysis, conceptual analysis, as well as examination of ethical issues related to contemporary education. Special emphasis on the Judeo-Christian heritage that permeates the content and processes of teaching.

EDUC 5163 Introduction to Curriculum Development

Examination of issues and problems of planning for teaching and consideration of practical and theoretical aspects of curriculum. Conversation about a variety of literature – including novels, trade books, short stories, poetry, and journal articles - produces a critical examination of contemporary educational issues, coming conceptions of curriculum, organization of subject matter, curriculum theory, and external forces.

EDUC 5213 Contemporary Issues Involving Diversity in the Classroom

Designed to offer students a thorough understanding of the many variances found in schools today—including differences in the ways students learn and approach the act of learning; the effects of cultural differences on learning; students of high ability; ADD and ADHD and other exceptionalities. Includes assessment plans, interview techniques, and curriculum design.

EDUC 5263 Educational Research I

A study of the methodology involved in the implementation of behavioral research. Topics includes the vocabulary of research, major types of research, statistical techniques, research problems, the form of the research paper, and the use of technology. Requires practical application in a research project addressing a current issue in education and the completion of the research proposal consisting of the first three chapters of the research paper.

EDUC 5313 Instructional Technologies

Addresses the ever-changing issues in educational technology. Discusses the use of different media in the classroom, including computers. Includes the design of lessons that encourage classroom use of media to meet specific curriculum goals and that plan for student use of these technologies. Topics may include hypermedia, distance learning, audiovisual instruction, and basic trends in instructional technology.

EDUC 5363 Professional Leadership

Introduces the experienced teacher to recent trends and issues in professional leadership. Includes dynamics of group processes, decision-making procedures, parental/client involvement, educational organization and control, grant writing, and the S.C. School Report Card.

EDUC 5413 Student Assessment

A study of the methods and instruments used to assess student success, including consideration of educational tests and measurements, alternative assessments, portfolio assessment, and performance assessments.

EDUC 5463 Educational Research II

A continuation of EDUC 5263, Educational Research I. The student will conclude the research paper by completing the remaining chapters based on the implementation of the research proposal and collection and analysis of data. The student will formally present the research paper at the conclusion of the course.

Additional graduate electives are required to total 36 semester hours. These may include six hours of graduate work in education or up to twelve hours of transferred graduate work in the student's certification discipline.

EDUC 5513 Creativity

Introduction to major definitions, theories, and research related to the study of creativity and the creative individual. Includes techniques for teaching creative thinking skills and for adapting existing curriculum to encourage creative thinking in students. Also includes a review of instruments for measuring creative thinking abilities, methods for enhancing personal creative abilities, and techniques for examining the creative process.

EDUC 5533 Methods and Materials of Teaching the Intellectually Gifted

A study of the theoretical and practical aspects of curricular experiences for gifted and talented students. Examines instructional models, to encourage a critical understanding of how principles and practical procedures are set forth in teaching models.

EDUC 5553 Educating Gifted and Talented Learners

An introduction to the field of gifted education including a history of gifted education, theories of intelligence, definitions of giftedness, methods of identification and a variety programming options in the conventional classroom/school setting. Practical aspects include the development of IEP's, learning styles assessments, interest assessments, and management plans.

EDUC 5573 Strategies for Teaching Thinking Skills

Examines the nature, models, strategies, and skills of thinking. Includes selecting objectives, identifying necessary teaching skills and techniques, and organizing the classroom environment for teaching thinking effectively.

EDUC 5613. Teacher Effectiveness and Classroom Handling (PLS)

Focus is on positive, observable teacher behaviors and classroom practices that enhance student self-esteem and create a positive and inviting learning environment.

EDUC 5633. Patterns for Induction, Deduction, Enquiry, Analysis, and Synthesis (PLS)

Includes awareness of personal thinking processes, problem-solving strategies specifically applicable to the classroom, problem solving used in real life, techniques for developing critical thinking skills, and patterns of thinking around which lessons can be structured.

EDUC 5653. Teaching Through Learning Channels (PLS)

Provides information about how each person learns based on current brain research and trains educators to create and deliver lessons that work through these natural channels of learning.

EDUC 5673. Keys to Motivation (PLS)

Designed to provide educators with a framework for creating a motivating environment for all students, and to understand that motivation is an enormously complex issue that can be addressed in classroom situations using encouragement, leadership, and student grouping strategies.

EDUC 5693. Teaching Skills of the 21st Century (PLS)

As educators share their vision of how a curriculum should be developed and taught, they learn facilitation skills that ensure the successful education and enrichment of both student and teacher.

EDUC 5713. Meaningful Activities to Generate Interesting Classrooms (PLS)

Focuses on unlocking educators' creativity so they can develop lessons that motivate students to participate and learn. Participants develop multiple activity-based lessons within existing curriculum.

EDUC 5733. Achieving Student Outcomes Through Cooperative Learning (PLS)

Trains educators to effectively set up, manage, and debrief group work so that students learn academics and interpersonal skills.

EDUC 5753. Coaching Skills for Successful Teaching (PLS)

Concrete reasons and practical strategies for implementing coaching programs within schools. Helps educators build supportive rapport among colleagues for the purpose of bringing about positive instructional change.

EDUC 5773 Successful Teaching for Acceptance of Responsibility (PLS)

This course is designed to help experienced and beginning K-12 educators create a classroom environment in which responsible behavior is modeled, taught, and supported. Participants will explore the underlying causes of irresponsible behavior and learn specific strategies associated with four instructional approaches that empower students to be self-directed, responsible learners: helping students develop personal power, helping students use effective mental models, teaching students appropriate behaviors, and developing skills for positive student confrontation.

EDUC 5783. Classroom Management: Orchestrating a Community of Learners (PLS)

Designed to equip educators concepts and strategies for orchestrating classroom life to enhance learning. Addresses the following areas: the physical environment, rules and routines, flow of instruction, reinforcement for desired student behaviors, a hierarchy of consequences for student misbehaviors, parent involvement, and teacher resilience.

EDUC 5813. Decoding and Spelling Strategies for Elementary Teachers (Phonology) (Project Read)

A methods course that provides teachers with a basic decoding approach to reading based on systematic phonics using multi-sensory strategies and materials delivered through direct, concept teaching. Targeted for teachers of primary students, the approach can be adapted for any person at a beginning level in decoding written language.

EDUC 5833. Structure and Format of Language for the Elementary Classroom (Reading Comprehension)

(Project Read)

A methods course that presents teachers with strategies related to the explanation of the underlying structure and format of language in both expository and narrative forms. The goal is to instruct teachers on how to assist students in the independent application and transfer of the concepts and skills into other curriculum areas. Intended for teachers of students in grades four through adult levels.

EDUC 5853. Word Function in Sentence Structure and Paragraph Development (Written Expression)

(Project Read)

Designed to equip teachers with the strategies needed to assist in developing the mastery of sequence, as well as paragraph development and composition. This course is appropriate for teachers of students in grade one through adult levels.

EDUC 5863 Decoding Approach for Older Students with Difficulty Mastering the Reading Process (Linguistics)

(Project Read)

Provides teachers with a decoding approach to use with older students who are still having difficulty mastering the reading process. The Linguistics curriculum presents the history of the written language, phonology, morphology, syntax vocabulary, affixes, roots, and word origins. Intended for teachers of students in grades four through adult levels.

ENGLISH COURSES

All students must enroll in English until they complete ENGL 1013. Withdrawal is not permitted until after the last day to drop without record but must be completed before the final withdrawal date. Students must first consult both their advisor and the instructor before dropping a course. Failure to meet this requirement will result in academic warning for the semester, and failure to enroll in the appropriate English course for the following semester will result in being placed on academic probation.

Prerequisite to all courses numbered 1013 and higher is competency in written composition as established in ENGL 1003 or on the placement/competency evaluation.

ENGL 1003. Freshman English I

Emphasis on composition requiring a command of the language with respect to grammar and usage, unified paragraphs, and well-organized, persuasive essays. Effective reading and research reporting are also stressed. Some attention is given to skills needed for effective oral and written communication. Satisfactory performance on writing portfolio required to receive credit for course. Offered every semester.

ENGL 1013. Freshman English II

Emphasis on refining and sharpening composition skills acquired in ENGL 1003. Introduction to literary analysis of short story, drama, film, and poetry. Oral presentations and research paper required. Offered every semester. Prerequisites: ENGL 1003 and writing competency.

ENGL 1054. Writing for Adults (AGS)

Designed to provide the writing skills required for success in college and career. Research essay required. Successful performance on the writing portfolio satisfies writing competency requirements for graduation.

ENGL 1151. Cornerstone English Seminar

This seminar will introduce students to the English major, discussing the kinds of courses that are taught, the kinds of skill that are needed, and the kinds of outcomes students can expect. It will also introduce students to the research skills required of English majors. Students will spend time doing research in the library, writing bibliographic entries, writing précis and abstracts of articles, and finally developing a bibliography for a particular topic. Ideally, it will be taken in the second semester of the freshman year, but no later than the first semester of the sophomore year. Transfers into the major or transfers from other institutions should take it as soon as possible after they enter the major (assuming they are sophomores).

ENGL 1703. Introduction to Mass Media

This course provides an introduction to various written venues of mass media. It covers the convergence of print, broadcast, and online media and focuses on writing style, appropriate techniques and procedures for various media, and professional ethics. Basic skills in editing and preparation for production are also covered. Prerequisite: Writing competency.

ENGL 1713. Multimedia Journalism

An introduction to basic reporting techniques used in television, radio, and various print and electronic media. Headline and layout skills will be covered, as well as specialized reporting for print and non-print media. Prerequisite: Writing competency.

ENGL 2053. World Cultural Literature

The relationship between literature and cultures, designed to make students aware of cultures different from their own. Study will include representative works in mythology, folklore, classics, and non-Western literature. Offered every semester. Required for all education and English majors. Prerequisites: ENGL 1013. ENGL 2103 Speech Communication strongly recommended.

ENGL 2093. Communications for College and Career (AGS)

An overview of practical communication for college and career. Includes English usage, punctuation, and mechanics; diction, syntax, and paragraphing; the writing process; memos, letters, reports, abstracts, and essays; and oral presentations.

ENGL 2103. Speech Communication

The fundamentals of speech, with emphasis on components of communication, critical thinking, and formal and informal presentations. Offered most semesters. Prerequisites: ENGL 1003.

ENGL 2113. Oral Interpretation

An introduction to the principles of acting, pantomime, and oral interpretation of poetry and prose. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: ENGL 1013 and writing competency.

ENGL 2123. Interpersonal Communication

Designed to assist students in becoming ethically responsible interpersonal communicators who understand theoretical choices and who can design, express, interpret, and evaluate functional messages. Prerequisites: ENGL 1013 and writing competency.

ENGL 2303. Literature and Life (AGS)

Selections of world literature, studied from two major perspectives—aesthetic (literature as an art form) and world-view (life and faith issues raised in literature). Prerequisite: Three hours of composition, writing competency, and reading competency. Will not meet literature requirement in the traditional program. Not open to students who need credit for both ENGL 1013 and 2053.

ENGL 3003. Adolescent Literature

The opportunity for the interpretive and critical study of literature suitable for the middle school and high school student. Wide reading is required, including selections by minority and non-Western writers. Offered fall of odd years. Prerequisite: ENGL 2053 or permission of instructor.

ENGL 3013. American Literature

A survey of American literature from the Colonial period to the present. Includes literature by women and minorities. Offered spring of even years. Prerequisite: ENGL 2053 or permission of the instructor.

ENGL 3053, 3063. English Literature

A chronological survey of English literature emphasizing critical analysis of representative works of major authors with attention given to backgrounds and characteristics of respective literary periods. 3053 includes Anglo-Saxon times to the Romantic period; offered fall of even years. 3063 includes the Romantic period into the Twentieth Century; offered spring of odd years. Prerequisite: ENGL 2053 or permission of the instructor.

ENGL 3103. Introduction to Principles and Strategies for Teaching English as a Second Language

Introduction to the content and methodology required for teaching English to speakers of other languages. Course issues include identification and analysis of linguistic elements of other languages as they contrast with English, vocabulary, syntax, and culture. Practical methods and materials appropriate to varying levels of students will be developed. Pre-requisites: ENGL 2053 and writing competency.

ENGL 3153. Advanced Writing

An advanced study of prose types. Attention is given to modern rhetorical theory and to the creative process involved in writing, revising, and editing. Offered spring of even years. Prerequisites: ENGL 1013 and writing competency.

ENGL 3183. Creative Writing

Supervised writing with each student undertaking projects according to interest. Attention is given to the composing process and to skills involved in revising and editing. Offered spring of odd years. Prerequisites: ENGL 1013 and writing competency.

ENGL 3193. Writing for the Media

Emphasis on developing the skills of professional writers in all major areas of media, including the World Wide Web, broadcast, newspapers, magazines, advertising, and public relations. Covers AP style for print and broadcast.

ENGL 3203. The English Novel

The English novel from the eighteenth century into the present. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: ENGL 2053 or permission of instructor.

ENGL 3303. American Novel

A selection of major American novels. Research paper is required. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: ENGL 3013 or permission of instructor.

ENGL 4151. Capstone English Seminar

This seminar will introduce students to a variety of careers that English majors, both immediately following college and with additional training in a variety of graduate school programs. Students will be encouraged to examine career options, possibly with the help of interest inventories, look for internships, and plan courses with an eye to a future career. It will also discuss graduate school studies, the GRE, and graduate school applications. In addition, a requirement of the course will be the development of both a resume and a curriculum vitae. It will ideally be taken in the first semester of the senior year, and must be taken before graduation. The major post-test, a requirement for graduation, will be taken in this seminar. Pre-requisite: Senior standing or permission of the Division Chair.

ENGL 400. Studies in English (Hours to be determined)

Study of any topic in English meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

ENGL 4203. Modern Grammar and Linguistics

Linguistic analysis, including principles of phonology, morphology, and syntax as related to traditional, structural, and transformational grammars. Other topics include the various purposes and varieties of language, as well as the processes associated with language acquisition and use. Offered fall of even years. Prerequisite: ENGL 1013.

ENGL 4303. History of the English Language

The development of the English language from its beginning to the present. Offered spring of odd years. Prerequisite: ENGL 1013.

ENGL 4503. Shakespeare

The main comedies, histories, and tragedies. Offered spring of even years. Prerequisite: ENGL 3053 or permission of instructor.

ENGL 4553. Senior Issues, Practices, and Ethics in Communication

Examination of current issues and practices in the field of communication, with emphasis on ethics. Major research/writing or presentation project required.

ENGL 4703. Literary Criticism

Major approaches to literary criticism, in theory and practice, from Aristotle to the present. Offered fall of odd years. Prerequisite: 15 hours in ENGL or permission of instructor.

ENGL 480. Senior Practicum (Hours to be determined)

Open to seniors who show promise of professional development. Supervised training in a business or in a community service agency appropriate to the student's interests. Approval of students and of placement will be given by the coordinator of studies in English. Credit: up to seventeen semester hours. Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing. P/NC

ENGL 4813. TESOL Practicum

Open to seniors pursuing a minor in TESOL. Supervised training in a school or community agency. Approval of students and of placement will be coordinated by the director of the TESOL program. Prerequisites: competency in computer, math, oral communication, reading, and writing. P/NC

ENGL 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours per semester)

ENGL 4993. Major Honors

FORENSIC SCIENCE

FRSC 2103. Introduction to Forensic Science

A broad coverage of criminalistics, including such topics as processing of physical and chemical evidence, identifying blood and other body fluids and recognizing stain patterns, identifying skeletal and ordontological remains, and examining firearms, gun powder residues, and tool marks. Prerequisites: three credits of biology, chemistry, or psychology, or permission of the instructor or division chair.

FRSC 3101. Forensic Science Seminar

This seminar provides more in-depth information on topics discussed in FRSC 2103, or covers topics not discussed in FRSC 2103. For graduation, a forensic science major must take three of these one credit seminars that discuss different topics. Prerequisites: FRSC 2103 or permission of the instructor or division chair. (If a student wants to take more than three of these seminars toward graduation, approval by the division chair must be obtained.)

FRSC 4103. Forensic Computing

Forensic computing is a study and practice of techniques for finding data that has been hidden from law enforcement, believed to be deleted from a computer system, or left behind as a result of not knowing how a computer processes information and instructions. Prerequisites: CPSC 3003, CPSC 3354, CPSC 3633 or permission of the instructor.

FRSC 4803. Forensic Science Internship

An internship off-campus, to provide professional development for senior level students. Prerequisites: FRSC 2103, FRSC 3101, and FRSC 4103 (if applicable).

Emphasis on the relationship of values to various ethical perspectives, emphasizing a Christian world view. Central to the course are approaches to ethical analysis of issues related to business and management.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION COURSES

Physical Education Activities

Three semester hours of physical education activities, including PHED 1031 Lifetime Fitness, are required of all college students for graduation. It is suggested that these be taken in the freshman and sophomore years.

Courses listed below are designed to acquaint students with individual and team activities; all are graded P/NC.

PHED 1001 Tennis and Badminton

PHED 1011 Bowling

PHED 1021 Swimming

PHED 1041 Archery and Golf

PHED 1061 Conditioning and Weight Training

PHED 1071. Tae Kwon Do

PHED 1101 Gymnastics (2007-2008). Enrollment limited to twelve, with P.E. majors given preference for positions.

PHED 1131 Cooperative Recreational Games

PHED 1201 Scuba

A course may be repeated once for elective credit; the repeated course does not satisfy the general education requirement, which requires two different activity courses.

PHED 1031. Lifetime Fitness

An overview of the most current and accurate information available on fitness. Emphasis on the benefits of adopting a healthy lifestyle as a lifetime commitment.

PHED 1071. Tae Kwon Do

Designed to provide the basic knowledge and skills necessary to help develop the sport of Tae Kwon Do. Each student will have an opportunity to acquire and utilize the basic knowledge and skills of this course through instruction and participation.

PHED 1122. Wilderness Leadership Skills

A foundation course designed to develop wilderness leadership skills of the participants thereby enhancing their personal enjoyment of the outdoors, the conservation of wild areas, and improving the safety of outdoor trips. Offered on sufficient demand.

PHED 1131. Cooperative Recreational Games

An introductory course for students who plan to work with children and youth. Enables the student to understand the nature and philosophy of cooperative recreation and to create and lead non-competitive, cooperative games and activities. Offered on sufficient demand.

PHED 1162 Rhythmic Activities

Provides the basic knowledge and skills involved in teaching and leading social and rhythmic activities. Consideration will be given to the theory, value, characteristics, and ethnic sources of dance and rhythmic activities. Qualifies as a PE activities course (one hour activities, with one hour as an elective). (2008-2009)

PHED 1181. Lifetime Leisure Studies (AGS)

Introduction to such lifetime leisure activities as bowling, tennis, golf, fly casting, walking, jogging, and aerobics. Rules, etiquette, equipment, and basic instructional procedures will be presented. A leisure inventory will help guide students to activity choices. May not be repeated for credit.

PHED 2003. Organization and Administration of Health and Physical Education

Planning, organizing, and directing health and physical education programs in the secondary school. Includes the role of the teacher in regards to budgeting, planning the physical education program, and teacher-pupil relationship. (2007-2008)

PHED 2043. Scientific, Historical, and Philosophical Foundation of Physical Education

The scientific, historical, and philosophical development of physical education and its implications to the educational development of the individual. (2008-2009)

PHED 3012. Principles, Ethics and Issues of Athletic Coaching

Principles, strategies and methods used in teaching and coaching various sports. The nature of the coaching profession with particular attention to professional expectations and responsibilities, ethical considerations, applied principles of athletic coaching, problems and issues of interscholastic and intercollegiate athletics, as well as legal issues regarding the coaching profession.

PHED 3023. Prevention and Treatment of Athletic Injuries

The preventive, treatment, and rehabilitative techniques associated with athletic injuries. Protective wrapping and taping techniques are also studied and practiced. CPR/First Aid Certificate required for course completion. (2008-2009)

PHED 3033. Physical Education, Health, and Recreation for the Adapted School Program

The procedures for detecting physical disabilities and the procedures used for dealing with the special needs student. Includes basic athletic training procedures. (2007-2008)

PHED 3052. Kinesiology

The application and the analysis of bones, joints, ligaments, and muscles in the mechanism of the body movements involved in athletics, sports, and in the movement of everyday life; the relation of joints and muscular mechanism to the problems of bodily development and efficiency; the adaptation of activity load to one recovering from injury and dis. Prerequisite: Health Education or Anatomy and Physiology. (2007-2008)

PHED 3062. Physiology of Exercise

The study of the basic applied science that describes, explains, and uses the body's response to exercise and adaptation to exercise training in order to maximize human physical potential. (2007-2008)

PHED 3082. Methods of Teaching Soccer and Volleyball (2008-2009)

PHED 3092. Methods of Teaching Basketball (2008-2009)

PHED 3102. Methods of Teaching Football (2008-2009)

PHED 3112. Methods of Teaching Baseball and Track and Field (2007-2008)

PHED 3132. Methods of Teaching Minor Sports (2008-2009)

PHED 3152. Methods of Teaching Physical Activity & Exercise (2008-2009)

The above courses deal with the correct teaching techniques of the various skills involved with each particular sport. Rules, regulations, terminologies, and strategies will also be discussed as they relate to the basic concepts employed in the performance of the various sports.

PHED 400. Studies in Physical Education (Hours to be determined)

Any topic in physical education meeting the approval of the division chair and the academic dean. Offered on sufficient demand.

PHED 4001. Athletic Coaching Internship

All students pursuing the Minor in Physical Education/Athletic Coaching shall be required to complete a coaching internship with an approved athletic team. The team may be an interscholastic, intercollegiate, or Junior Olympic program, which will be approved by a faculty member from the School of Education/Coordinator of the Athletic Coaching Minor.

PHED 4033. Tests and Measurements in Physical Education

The study of tests associated with a sound program in the area of health and physical education. Emphasis on the statistical procedures and the administration of tests in general motor abilities, physical fitness, skills, and knowledge. (2008-2009)

PHED 4063. Physical Education and Health for the Elementary School

The aims, objectives, and evaluation of physical education and health programs in the elementary school. Student participation in games and recreational activities for each grade level is required, as well as involvement in the health and safety practices necessary for the operations of an efficient health and physical education program.

PHED 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours per semester)

PHED 4993. Major Honors

PHYSICAL SCIENCE COURSES

Competency in mathematics is a prerequisite to all physical science courses numbered 1503 and higher.

PHSC 1503. Introduction to Chemistry and Physics

A general study of chemistry, physics. Laboratory included. Prerequisite: Competency in mathematics. Lab fee required.

PHSC 1513. Introduction to Astronomy and Earth Science

A general study of astronomy and earth science. Laboratory included. Prerequisite: Competency in mathematics. Lab fee required.

PHSC 1523. Astronomy

A survey of astronomy. Laboratory included. Prerequisite: Competency in mathematics. Lab fee required.

PHSC 1533. Introduction to Meteorology

An introductory course in meteorology (weather and climate) offered in cooperation with the American Meteorological Society (AMS). Includes an on-line laboratory in which students follow and learn to interpret daily weather patterns as they develop. Topics include the atmosphere, weather, climate, climate change and severe storms. Lab fee required.

PHSC 400-419. Physical Science Studies (1 to 4 semester hours)

Study of any topic in physical science meeting the approval of the chair of the division and the dean of the college. Courses numbered 400-409 are directed study by individuals, those numbered 410-419 are experimental courses not described above. Offered on sufficient demand. 400-409 graded P/NC. Prerequisite: consent of the instructor and competency in mathematics. May require lab fee.

PHYSICS COURSES

PHYS 2044, 2054. Physics I, II

An algebra-based physics course covering mechanics, thermodynamics, and waves including sound (first semester), and electricity and magnetism, optics, and "modern" physics (second semester). Prerequisite: Math competency. Lab included. Lab fee required.

PSYCHOLOGY COURSES

PSYC 1204. Applied Psychology and Effective Management (AGS)

A study of adult development and processes that affect the effective coping and adaptive skills of the individual. Attention is given to the commitments, demands, and responsibilities of personal, professional, family, and community concerns.

PSYC 2003. General Psychology

A general survey of the science of human behavior, designed to acquaint the student with principles of human development, learning, behavior, and with the experimental methods of psychology.

PSYC 3053. Understanding Self and Others

Focuses on developing the necessary knowledge, skills, and values for individuals working in the helping professions. Includes use of tools for development of knowledge and skills in self-monitoring and management, analysis of human social systems, and interpersonal communications.

PSYC 3103. Child Psychology

A study of the child from conception to late childhood. Particular emphasis will be given to the physical, cognitive, moral, social, and personality development of the child. The interrelationship of biological and cultural factors will be considered. Offered every fall semester. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 3113. Adolescent Psychology

A study of development from childhood to adulthood. Physical, emotional, cognitive, and social growth patterns will be considered. Practical applications of theory and research will be made, as this course seeks to prepare people to work with adolescents. Offered every spring semester. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 3123. Human Growth and Development

An introductory course to human growth and development from conception through the different life stages. Will emphasize physical growth, cognitive development, personality development, and social interactions. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003. Offered every spring semester.

PSYC 3133. The Psychology of Adulthood and Aging

A focus on human development from early to late adulthood. Topics include dynamics of mid-life crisis, death and dying, disorders in aging (Alzheimer's, for example) and the process of aging.

PSYC 3143. Human Information Processing

An introductory course in human information processing, focusing on three domains (and their interaction in human behavior): perception, cognition, and emotion. Research methods in this domain will be considered, as well as a number of applied issues. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003. Offered every fall semester.

PSYC 3353. Forensic Psychology

A general survey of psychology, the legal system, and their interaction. A number of special issues will be considered, such as eyewitness memory, and the insanity defense. Consideration will be given to Christian perspectives on specific issues.

PSYC 3403. Social Psychology

The impact of social institutions and processes on behavior of the individual and of the individual upon groups. An analysis of the concepts and processes involved in the development of social goals and behaviors. Topics include attitude formation and change, public opinion, propaganda and group phenomena, leadership, tension aggression, conflict and methods of resolution. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003. Offered every fall semester.

PSYC 3503. Foundational and Professional Issues in Psychology

Focuses on (1) foundational issues, such as the history and philosophy of psychology, and the integration of Christianity and psychology, and (2) professional issues in psychology, including career possibilities, and graduate school. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003. Offered every fall semester only.

PSYC 3713. Introduction to Counseling

An introductory course on the theories and techniques of individual and group counseling, stages of other counseling process, the use of background materials and tests in counseling, counseling settings, and the counselor as a person. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 3753. Practical Counseling Skills

Counseling skills, techniques, and therapeutic factors involved in meeting client needs and goals. Includes brief overview of counseling theories and opportunities to build and practice skills and techniques

PSYC 400. Studies in Psychology (Hours to be determined)

Study of any topics in psychology meeting the approval of the division chair and the dean. Offered on sufficient demand. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 4013. Studies in Psychology/London Experience

A study of the influence on psychology of individuals in English thought and history. The contributions to the helping professions of Galton, Freud, Eysenck, Nightingale and others will be examined. Visits to the Freud Museum, The Museum of Natural History, The Florence Nightingale Museum and other sites will be included in the London itinerary.

PSYC 4403. Personality

This first half of this course focuses on surveying and evaluating secular theories of personality from scientific and Christian perspectives. The second half of the course emphasizes the development of a comprehensive, Christian theory of personality. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 4413. Abnormal Psychology

The major forms of behavioral pathology of children and adults, with an emphasis on understanding, treatment, and prevention of these personality disorders. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 4453 (MGMT 4453). Negotiation and Conflict Resolution

The development of the communication and management skills essential for successfully resolving conflict situations involving both labor and management practices. Uses simulation, case studies, and field work assignments. Prerequisite: PSYC 2003.

PSYC 489. Senior Practicum (Hours to be determined)

Superior students who show promise of professional development and who have completed course requirements for their degree may be eligible for placement in a community service agency. Such students will receive supervised training in some setting appropriate to their interests in psychology. A training fee will be determined by the nature of the placement. Credit: Up to seventeen semester hours. Prerequisite: competency in computer, math, oral communication, and writing. P/NC.

PSYC 490-498. Independent Study (1-3 hours per semester)

PSYC 4993. Major Honors

READING COURSE

RDNG 1001. College Reading

Reading for students who wish to improve reading skills such as rate, comprehension, and skimming/scanning. Prerequisite: At least 12.0 on the Nelson-Denny Reading Test for College.

RECREATION COURSES

RECR 2003. Introduction to Recreation, Sport, and Leisure Service Administration

A foundation course dealing with the role that recreation and leisure behaviors have in our society. Theories of leisure, social and economic factors concerning recreation, and how public, private, and commercial interests all interface to effect organized recreation programs, parks, and natural resources.

RECR 2013. Recreation Program Leadership

Gives the student hands-on skills in recreation program leadership. Includes arts and crafts, social functions, low organizational games, hobbies and special interest groups, activities in the cultural and performing arts, and trip planning.

RECR 3013. Inclusive Recreation and Leisure Services

Recreation service delivery to special populations. Analyzes problems confronting disadvantaged individuals and groups including the aging, economically disadvantaged, mentally retarded, physically disabled, and youth. Explores techniques and application of various recreation programs.

RECR 3023. Administration of Recreation and Sports Services

Recreation systems (public and private) analyzed from the standpoint of organization, administration, finances, training, legislation, public relations, and coordination of community resources. Principles and methods of program development. Supervisory skills indigenous to public and/or private agency sports programs.

RECR 3033. Camp Counseling and Administration

Gives prospective camp counselors and directors an understanding of the total camp program, duties and responsibilities of camp personnel, and various camp program skills. Emphasis on program planning, staff selection and development, health and safety, and evaluation.

RECR 3043. Sport Facilities, Planning, Operations and Maintenance

A study of basic sport, recreation, and park planning principles, processes, and trends in facility development. Also includes maintenance techniques, materials use, job planning, and scheduling of facility use. Marketing, and special problems will be analyzed as they relate to sport and recreation areas. Prerequisite: RECR 2003 Introduction to Recreation and Sports Management or PHED 2043 Foundations of Physical Education.
